TOELLER TELLS BLASHEK FACTS

Takes Issue with Free Bridge in Strong Open Letter Discussing Issue

POINTS TO INCONSISTENCY

Declares Former Attack on Market Pulls Teeth of Argument Against Free Bridge

La Crosse, Wis., March 31, 1912.

Editor Tribune: It is not probable that the article in which Mr. E. E. Blashek opposed a free bridge, in the Morning Chronicle, will cause any friend of the project to change his mind, notwithstanding the shrewd practice of the writer in holding back his letter until a date so late as to give little time in which to answer. This, I presume, is approved political method.

The free bridge matter, however, is not a political issue, but, purely a business proposition, and the voter, before casting his ballot should carefully weigh the possible advantages of a free bridge and the decided disadvantage of the toll bridge, which we now have. Strictly speaking, if there were to be no advantages coming to the consuming public on account of a free bridge, the system of collecting tolls would still be a vicious one, as under a democratic form of government all public highways should be open and free for the use of the general public. The argument that the bridge cost much money should and does not enter into the right or wrong of the matter for the very good reason that all public highways cost money and yet they are all free with the single exception of the Mississippi river wagon bridge. In the county of La Crosse there are perhaps hundreds of steel bridges spanning creeks and small rivers and all are free bridges. True, none of them nearly approach the wagon bridge in cost, still to the unbiased mind it is just as logical to charge toll for crossing the small bridges, whether that toll be one, five or ten cents. The relative cost of upkeep, taking the size of structure into consideration, is the same. As one of the Minnesota farmers aptly expressed it the other day. He said: "The administration at Washington, just now, is doing all it possibly can to bring about free business intercourse between this country and each of the foreign nations as show a disposition to be fair in the matter, business has moved freely throughout the various states of the union, no toll or tariff or tax of any kind being imposed, and yet the city of La Crosse insists on collecting a tariff of 25 cents from every man and team desiring to enter your city." Continuing, he further stated: "Besides, properly the wagon bridge really ought belong to the Minnesota farmer, for he has paid in tolls about what the bridge originally cost, but we don't want the bridge. All we ask of you is this, let the traffic flow freely by removing the tariff (toll) from produce and stock entering your city from the other side of the river." Rather a logical argument, don't you think?

In the Feb. 13th., 1912 issue of The Chronicle there was published a letter touching on the public market which was then being discussed. This communication was signed by E. E. Kehlab. This is Mr. Blashek's nom de plume; spell the name Kehsalb beginning with the last letter first and you will have the real name of the man who wrote the article on Feb. 12.

At that time Mr. Kehsalb-Blashek's arguments were against the public markets, then in today's issue he states we have lost the Minnesota farmer because we lack good markets. He further states that last fall (one case in particular where he places the time at a few days before Thanksgiving) he took great pains to interview all farmers, who came to the La Crosse Woolen Mills and that eighty-five per cent of them stated that our markets were not as good as those conducted by the small surrounding towns. If the facts as stated in today's issue are true then Mr. Blashek, in his article of Feb. 13 did not treat the market matter square, as from his own statement he has been gathering information contained in today's article as he states, he has been interviewing farmers ever since the free bridge matter came up (which is now about ten years) so that when he was protecting the middleman as against the public markets he knew positively that the one great important thing we lacked was the very one Blashek-Kehsalb combination is a sort of Dr. Jekyll-Mr. Hyde personality. Kehsalb on the markets believes one thing Blashek on the same subject knows from personal interviews that the one crying need is, just that, which Kehsalb believes we do not need. Rather a consistent combination?

The public will not be misled by the statement that "professional shouters are the free bridge advocates" (Continued on Page Six)

NORMAL BOARD TO BUILD DORMITORY

Two Blocks West of the La Crosse Normal School Bought by Board Today

BUILDING IN NEAR FUTURE

Will Ask Council to Vacate Streets; Rooms for Out-of-Town Students

With the filing of the papers in Register of Deeds Andrew Thompson's office this morning, the deal was completed whereby the state board of normal regents comes into possession of the two blocks west of the site of the La Crosse Normal school. The land was sold by Sam Anderson for $21,900 and will be used as a site for a large dormitory building which will be built in the near future.

"It is the policy of the board," said Lieutenant Governor Tom Morris, member of the board of regents who returned from the meeting of the board in Milwaukee today, "to establish dormitories in connection with all the normal schools, especially those in the larger cities, as fast as the finances of the state will allow. The dormitories are being built for the accommodation of the out-of-town students who are attending the schools in great numbers."

The board intends to petition the common council of La Crosse to vacate sixteenth street between State and Pine streets and to vacate Vine street between 15th and 16th streets. We expect that the council will grant the request as it will connect the normal school grounds in one large block. Plans are now being considered for the beautification of the grounds and when the landscape architects complete their work the normal school grounds will be one of the prettiest places in La Crosse.

"We expect to ask for an appropriation for the building of the dormitories at the next session of the legislature and as soon as the finances of the state seem to justify the expenditure the work on the buildings will begin. I expect that the appropriation will be granted within two or three years."

The dormitory plan was worked out in connection with other schools of the state has met with great success, providing the out-of-town students with cheap, sanitary and convenient rooming places. There are about 400 students attending the La Crosse normal school, the large part of whom are from out of town. It is probable that the dormitory building when erected will be large enough to accommodate more than 300 roomers to allow for the increased demand of the future.

SAYS BOB WILL WIN

JOHN J. BLAINE ISSUES STATEMENT CLAIMING ALL OF WISCONSIN DELEGATES FOR SENATOR

BOSCOBEL, Wis., April 1.—John J. Blaine, chairman of the La Follette personal campaign committee, is optimistic over the election. He today issued the following statement: "Senator La Follette will carry the state and we shall elect every La Follette delegate. The basis for my opinion are the favorable reports received from every district and from every part of every district. If the vote is heavy the majority will be much greater, but if it is light in some of the country districts, while we will be entirely safe, the majority may not be so large. The prospects are for good weather and a big vote."

ENGINEERS IN LA CROSSE

Charles A. Burdick, member of the firm of Alvord & Burdick, who have been employed by the city council to make a report on the underground water supply and four different systems of water plant, arrived in La Crosse this morning to look over the ground. He was accompanied by L. A. Geupel, a specialist engineer, who will assist in the investigation. It is probable that both men will be here for a week or more.

THE LA FOLLETTE DELEGATES

Following are the names you must vote for tomorrow if you want to send a La Follette delegation to the republican national convention:

SIX REASONS FOR A FREE BRIDGE

No city that closes its doors to outside trade can grow, and the city that stunts its own growth is retarding the welfare of every one of its citizens.

Competition reduces prices. The more farmers, the more competition in farm foods, and the lower the cost of living.

The free bridge is the first step toward a public market, and lower cost of living. If we defeat the free bridge now, we make it harder to get the market next fall.

Did you ever notice how the price of wood drops about $1 a cord every year the moment the river freezes so teams can cross on the ice? The competition of Minnesota wood with Wisconsin wood does it. Will not the same thing be true of all farm products all the time, with a free bridge?

So many Minnesota farmers are "sore" at the tolls, that the bridge records show only about half as many come to La Crosse as came here ten, fifteen and twenty years ago. Do you remember how cheaply you used to buy your potatoes, meat, poultry, butter and wood in those days? Then will you not vote to bring the farmer back to La Crosse?

The bridge tolls are not all profit to La Crosse citizens. YOU and your neighbors in La Crosse pay about one-third of them. If you, for business or pleasure, pay an average of 25 cents a year for bridge tolls, you will actually save expense by a free bridge.

To every citizen of La Crosse the free bridge means:

- (1) Lower cost of living
- (2) Greater general prosperity
- (3) General city growth
- (4) More work for working men
- (5) Increase in the value of your home
- (6) Better conditions for the individual.

Of these things, the lower cost of living will be a direct result. The others will come as the natural outgrowth of conditions bringing more traffic, more commodities, more wealth, business and labor to the city. The city of La Crosse has been standing still for years. The free bridge is a step forward. We cannot stop longer; we must go ahead, or we shall go back. The Tribune urges every citizen to give the free bridge a trial.

TRAIL OUTLAWS BY BLOODHOUNDS

Dogs that Figured in Beaty Case on Trail of Two of Allen Gang Still at Large

MOUNT AIRY, N. C., April 1.—The same bloodhounds that disproved the story of Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., the Richmond way murderer, today took up the trail of the two survivors of the outlaw Allen band of Hillsville.

The dogs, brought from the state farm, were taken out by a small posse early today and the trail was taken up from the thicket enclosed cave, where the posses yesterday found traces of Sidney Allen and Wesley Edwards, the only outlaws still at large.

They are now cut off from all assistance. Their food supply is practically exhausted, and before long they will be forced, the detectives believe, to return to civilization to buy or commandeer supplies. If they do come out of the hills their capture is practically assured, for small forces have been posted at every settlement, preparing to give battle to the hunted men at sight.

MRS. BURGMAIER DIES OF OLD AGE

Mrs. Anna M. Burgmaier died of old age at 9 o'clock this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. A. Gerdt, 726 Ferry street. Her health had been failing for four months.

Mrs. Burgmaier was 87 years old, and she had lived in La Crosse for many years and was well known here. Her husband died eight years ago.

Surviving her are one daughter, Mrs. E. A. Gerdt of this city, and one son, Michael Burgmaier, also of La Crosse.

The funeral will be held from the residence, 726 Ferry street, at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, and from St. Joseph's cathedral at 9:00 o'clock, with Rev. Sluyter officiating at the services. Interment will be made in the Catholic cemetery.

JEWS TO CELEBRATE FEAST OF PASSOVER

At sundown this evening 300 Jews of La Crosse will begin the celebration of the feast of the Passover, which will last until Tuesday of next week. Services will be held in the Jewish synagogue each day during the feast. A speakers may be procured to give an address during the week.

GEN. GRANT ILL

NEW YORK, April 1.—Mystery surrounds the granting of four months' leave of absence to Major General Frederick Dent Grant, commander of the department of the east. It was reported today that he was suffering an affliction of the throat similar to the disease that caused the death of his father, General U. S. Grant.

BOB IN ILLINOIS RACE

CHICAGO, April 1.—It was announced at the La Follette headquarters here today that the Wisconsin senator will enter the presidential preference primary fight in Illinois. Petitions were being circulated today and will be filed with the secretary of state as soon as sufficient names have been secured.

LARGE AUDIENCE HEARS LECTURE

More than 300 Hear Lecture on Game Given by J. Alden Loring

FISHERMEN IN DISCUSSION

Proposed Legislation Will Be Taken Up at Next Meeting, Held April 9

"Hunting and fishing will be the privilege of only the rich in the very near future and this great country which once teemed with all kinds of animal and bird life will be like the countries of Europe unless something is done to protect and propagate the game we have left," said J. Loring Alden, noted naturalist, addressing a large audience at the old Y. M. C. A. building Saturday evening. Mr. Loring illustrated his lecture on "Game Protection and Propagation" with stereopticon views taken from all parts of the American continent. An audience of more than 300 persons, a large part of whom were women, listened with great interest to the lecture.

Mr. Loring, who was one of the naturalists sent out by the Smithsonian Institute at Washington, accompanied Theodore Roosevelt on his famous hunting trip in Africa and he came to La Crosse under the auspices of the American Game Protective association. He was introduced to the audience Saturday evening by President A. T. Rasmussen of the local association who explained the aims and objects of the association.

WOULD ENFORCE LAWS

Mr. Loring declared that more than fifty per cent of the destruction of game is the fault of marketmen and that the laws of the different states should be made more strict and should be rigidly enforced if the slaughter is to be stopped. He said that while we have many good laws, legislation fails to keep pace with modern inventions and migratory birds had little chance against modern firearms. During his lecture he took up in detail the habits and methods of propagation of nearly every game bird and animal on the continent and showed what was needed to prevent their destruction.

After the lecture there was a short discussion of the local needs by many out of town fishermen and sportsmen. Frank Withrow, speaking for the market fishermen, said that it was the earnest desire of these men to co-operate with the hunting and fishing club. He declared that they had joined the society for the express purpose of helping make the laws more stringent and acting with the association to see that the laws are strictly enforced. He announced that the market fishermen would appoint a committee to meet with a committee of the association at any date set by the president.

GANTENBEIN SPEAKS

David Gantenbein, commercial fisherman of Malden Rock, spoke briefly on the extermination of fish in the Mississippi river. He asserted that millions of fish are winter killed each year. Mr. Gantenbein said that he was prepared to meet with the association April 9, the date set for the next meeting, and would explain many things that have come up in his years of experience as a fisherman on the river. He will make

HEARST PAPER IN MILWAUKEE?

May Buy Milwaukee Leader in Case the Socialists Are Defeated Tomorrow

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 1.—(Special.)—That Hearst is contemplating entering the Milwaukee newspaper field is the conclusion of local people following the visit here on Saturday last of Arthur Brisbane, editor-in-chief of the Hearst publications.

Caught at the depot as he was slipping out of the city Mr. Brisbane maintained steadfastly that the only object for his visit to the Cream City was to talk over the political situation "with my friend Berger."

This was admitted by him after it was pointed out that he had held a lengthy conference with the socialist congressman from Milwaukee.

"According to the 'dope' here the Hearst people are negotiating for the purchase of the Milwaukee Leader, the socialist publication, in the event that party is defeated at the polls at the coming election."

The fact that it has been the system of the Hearst people to jump in and buy a paper, founded in the interests of the people, as it is about to suspend publication is the grounds for the suspicion of a tentative deal with Hearst.

Representatives of the Leader have at times during the campaign made the assertion that if the socialists are victorious this year the editorial and business office force of the paper will be doubled but have been reticent on what course will be pursued in case they are defeated.

Unable to get recognition in the other Milwaukee dailies the socialists founded the Leader and it is devoted to the cause of socialism.

LOUIS P. STEIN DIES IN CHICAGO

Louis P. Stein, aged 50, died at Chicago Sunday morning after an illness of two weeks. Mr. Stein was the brother of Mrs. Bernhard Bloom, 310 South Ninth street.

Mr. Stein was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, but he moved to Chicago when young and has resided there practically all his life. He was a member of the Royal League and held the position of secretary of that organization up to the time of his death. He came to La Crosse every year to visit his mother, Mrs. Stein, who resided here, and he was well known in this city.

He is survived by two brothers, Ed and Will Stein of Chicago, and one sister, Mrs. Bernhard Bloom, 310 South Ninth street.

The body will be brought to this city tomorrow morning at 6:25 o'clock on the C. M. & St. P. road. The funeral will be held at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. B. Bloom, 310 South Ninth street, with the Masons in charge of the funeral services. Interment will be made in the Jewish cemetery, where Mr. Stein's mother is buried.

LA FOLLETTE TO START

WASHINGTON, April 1.—A telegram announcing his speaking itinerary of his first day in "stumping" Nebraska was received today by Senator La Follette.

RIVER IN FLOOD ABOUT ST. LOUIS

Illinois, Missouri, Kentucky and Mississippi Damaged by High Water

ALBERT LEA IS FLOOD SWEEP

Eastern Part of City Inundated by Flood when Dam Gives Way on Sunday

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—Serious flood conditions exist today along the Mississippi river in Illinois, Missouri, Kentucky and Mississippi. The government levee has broken in several places below Cairo, Ill., and the river is inundating all of the rich farming country for miles around. Farmers have moved to highlands, homes are deserted, but little loss of life is reported. The river is expected to reach a stage of 53.5 feet by tomorrow at Cairo and may rise higher, owing to rains which started today.

Passenger service over the Iron mountain has been abandoned from Cairo. Several miles of track have been washed out, and yesterday two passenger trains were caught in the midst of the flood, with the tracks washed out over the side. The passengers were taken from the trains in skiffs.

At all points farmers are working day and night reinforcing the levee with sand bags.

Albert Lea Suffers

ALBERT LEA, Minn., April 1.—At midnight yesterday the waters still were surging over the yards of the Rock Island and the eastern part of the city as a result of the sweeping out of the cofferdam across the Shell Rock river at the foot of Fountain lake, which body has been filled to overflowing from the melting snows.

Kankakee Up

HAMMOND, Ind., April 1.—With 25,000 acres of farm land completely inundated and three towns partly submerged, Hammond, Gary and other larger places in the Kankakee valley are today making desperate defense against the on-rush of the flood. The property loss is reported to exceed $500,000, and at a score of places near Shelby, Walter valley and Schneider, the flooded towns, the river is pouring through breaks in the Grant Williams dyke.

WARRANT FOLLOWS THREATS

A warrant was sworn out in District Attorney James Thompson's office today against Frank Hicks, 516 South Fourth street, by his wife, who accuses him of flourishing a butcher knife and threatening her life. She alleges that he shook the knife at her shouting "The sun will never shine on you again." Hicks will be arraigned in county court tomorrow.

TO SAVE STATE RIGHTS

RAILWAY COMMITTEES OF SEVEN STATES START FIGHT TO UPHOLD THEIR COMMISSIONS

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Backed by the national governors' congress, railway committees of seven states before the supreme court today opened a fight for existence. The lawyers are engaged in the "state's rights" battle, involving the right of the state commissions to regulate railroad rates to the exclusion of the interstate commerce commission.

Gov. Harmon of Ohio, filed the brief for the governors' congress on behalf of the committees. It contends vigorously for retention of rate making power by the state committees, denying emphatically that such powers usurp the authority of the federal commission.

WIND DESTROYS TOWER

BERLIN, April 1.—The great steel tower at Nauen, the tallest, with the exception of the Eiffel tower in Paris, in the world, and from which it had been expected to communicate direct by wireless with America, was demolished by a wind storm. No one was injured. The tower will be rebuilt.

STUDENTS JOIN CHURCH

MADISON, Wis., April 1.—As a result of special activities for university day in the local churches yesterday between sixty and seventy university students became affiliated with various churches.

FAMILY IN DANGER THROUGH CONTAGION

- Tuberculosis is not hereditary
- but nevertheless, it frequently carries off entire families.
- Why? Simply because the course of the contagion in the person of the diseased member of the family continues in the midst of those who are likely to be the next victims. A county sanatorium gives opportunity to remove the source of infection and eliminates the danger to the rest of the family.

AMERICAN HELD BY BANDIT GANG

La Crosse Woman Gets a Letter Telling of Peril of Son and Family in Mexico

FATE OF PARTY IS UNKNOWN

Village Surrounded by Desperadoes Who Call Themselves Revolutionists; Wires Are Cut

According to a letter received today by Mrs. Mary Conklin, 323 South Eighth street, from her son Harry at Lluvia De Oro, Chihuahua, Mexico, Americans at that place are entirely cut off from the rest of the world by a band of 300 bandits at Mesquitalcabo and no means of escape from the country is available.

The letter which is postmarked March 19, tells of how the family of Harry Conklin and other Americans connected with the Lluvia De Oro mining company at that place had prepared to leave for the United States owing to the troubled conditions caused by the numerous revolutions in Mexico, but had been warned a few moments before starting of the mobilization of 300 revolutionists to Mesquitalcabo.

It was deemed inadvisable to attempt to leave as it is necessary to pass through Mesquitalcabo in order to reach the nearest railroad. Lluvia is a small American settlement composed of a dozen families who are interested in the mines at that place.

On a former occasion the village was surrounded and the Americans forbidden to leave for six weeks, but no attack was made upon them. Mr. Conklin declares that while the men assert that they are revolutionists acting under orders of a leader, they are nothing more or less than bandits who scour the country plundering homes and taking all that they may find of value.

Fears American Intervention

Mr. Conklin in his letter declares that he feared that American troops would be ordered to take part in settling the troubles of the Mexicans and asserted that this would be dangerous to Americans who are now in Mexico. He inferred in his letter that any move on the part of American troops to end the revolution would be immediately followed by raids upon American homes and settlements in Mexico by the insurgents.

Americans in Mexico are not prepared to make any stand against an attack of this kind and it is probable that great bloodshed will result if American troops invade Mexico.

It is for this reason that the Americans at Lluvia De Oro decided to send their families to the United States as it is thought that it is only a matter of time when the United States will take a hand in the trouble.

Owing to the cutting of telegraph wires it is impossible to get news from Lluvia De Oro of the situation at that place, and it is not known whether the Americans have succeeded in making their way through to Arizona or are still surrounded by Mexican revolutionists.

BROKER SUICIDES

CHICAGO, April 1.—Herbert B. Root, 30, a stock broker, was found dead in bed at his home here today. He committed suicide by taking cyanide of potassium.

WEATHER

For La Crosse and vicinity: Unsettled with probably rain or snow tonight; Tuesday generally fair.

For Wisconsin: Unsettled tonight with rain or snow east and south portions; Tuesday fair.

For Minnesota: Fair tonight and Tuesday; not much change in temperature.

For Iowa: Generally fair tonight and Tuesday except rain or snow in southeastern portion.

Weather Notes

Light rain or snow has been general during the past 48 hours from the Rocky mountain region to the Mississippi valley to Texas and high west of the Rocky mountains. The weather will be unsettled in this section tonight with probably rain or snow, followed by generally fair weather Tuesday. The temperature changes will not be decided.

KILLS GIRL WHO SPURNS HIS SUIT

CHICAGO, April 1.—"Thou shalt not kill!" Joseph Zalinski, who listened for over an hour to a sermon on this text at St. Michael's Lutheran Catholic church is dying at Elizabeth's hospital and Venical Blazet, the girl who repulsed his attentions is dead. As they were coming down the steps of the church Zalinski stopped the girl, who was his niece, and asked her if she had changed her mind regarding her refusal to marry him. When she answered: "No," he fired a bullet through her head. She dropped, fatally wounded and before any of the crowd of persons coming from the church could interfere he fired another bullet into his own brain. The girl died an hour after she had been taken to the hospital.

ATTEMPT MADE TO MURDER SENATOR

Insane Man Makes Attack on Senator Gore During Speech at Waukesha

WAUKESHA, Wis., April 1.—United States Senator Thomas P. Gore was saved from serious assault here Saturday afternoon only by the instant intervention of Judge Harmin, chairman of the great meeting, to which Oklahoma's blind senator had started to speak.

A crazed Pole, who when arrested, gave the name of Charles Scharmalla, but who said his celestial title was Jesus Christ, had with the crafty mind of a fanatic planned his murderous attack on the aged senator.

When the speaker had been introduced to the crowd of 2,000 that thronged the Casino hall, the assailant crept from the third row to the first row of seats, directly in front of the platform.

From the flaps of his coat he snatched a stout stick. With this bludgeon he leaped upon the senator, whose blindness allowed no intimation of any intended harm.

In fact the only warning given him was the sweep of the man's body as he plunged from the third row platform by Judge Harmin. At this the speaker shrank into his seat.

When the great crowd saw the murderous intent of the man, they rose as a body and strove to reach him. The police, however, had hustled the fanatic from the building.

Later at the county jail, where he was rushed, the man mumbled incoherently of an attack, and said that it was his intention to will Roosevelt.

Scharmalla is of a stout build and was subdued and handcuffed only after a fierce fight with the officers. After the scuffle and escape, Senator Gore asked the crowd to be calm and delivered his address. His instinctive shrinking was the only effect that the aged speaker showed.

FACULTY TO SPEAK

MADISON, Wis., April 1.—Twenty-nine members of the University of Wisconsin faculty will deliver addresses at the joint meeting of the Wisconsin Archaeological society, the Wisconsin Mycological society, the Wisconsin Natural History society and the Wisconsin Academy of Sciences, Arts and Letters, to be held here April 4 and 5.

VILLAGE INCORPORATES
MADISON, Wis., April 1.—The village of Park Falls, which last week voted to become a city, has been granted letters patent by the governor empowering it to incorporate as the city of Park Falls. It is situated in northern Price county.

CASCARETS CLEANSE LIVER AND BOWELS

No Biliousness, Headache, Sick, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Coated Tongue or Constipation

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a still barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—Indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give you a thorough cleansing inside and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

SHE DEFENDS SLAYER

WOMAN LAWYER APPOINTED BY COURT TO DEFEND NEGRO MURDERER IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, April 1.—For the first time as far as is known in the history of the country a woman lawyer was assigned as chief counsel to defend an accused murderer. The attorney is Miss Lucille Pugh, more than ordinarily good looking and a member of the exclusive Pugh family of North Carolina. She will defend Leroy Poindexter, a negro, arrested for shooting to death Thomas Brown, a white man on March 7, after a dispute growing out of a crap game. The negro came from North Carolina, where he had worked for the Pugh family.

When arraigned before Judge Swann Poindexter pleaded not guilty and announced that he had no money to employ counsel. Judge Swann sent for Miss Pugh and asked her if she would undertake the case. She said she would. The assignment carries a fee of $500 from the state.

WINTER'S DEATH IS SHOCK TO FRIENDS

DAKOTA, Minn., April 1.—(Special.)—The death of Mr. Henry Winter came with a shock to both relatives and friends. He had been in very poor health for some time, but it was not thought to be serious. After eating a hearty supper on the night of March 26, he lay down for a rest and seemed resting quietly, when he suddenly called for his daughter, Mrs. Lucinda Wolf, his constant attendant, to assist him, and immediately passed away as one going to sleep. Mr. Henry Winter has been a resident of Winona county, Minn., since 1865, and leaves to mourn his loss three sons and two daughters, Mrs. Lucinda Wolfe at home, Mrs. Emma Brown, and Wm. Winter, Dakota, Mr. George Winter of Winona, and Martin Winter at home. His wife died about fifteen years before him.

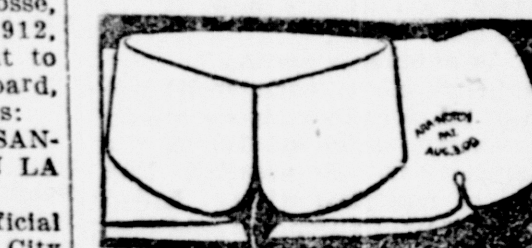

Mr. Winter was a man of sterling qualities, loved by his family and held in high esteem by his host of friends and neighbors. He was a faithful member of the M. E. church and lived a life that will be remembered long after his departure. The funeral services were held in the M. E. church of Dakota March 28, Rev. Doran of Winona officiating. Mr. Palmer of Winona sang some very beautiful solos. Tetley & Son of La Crosse were in charge. Interment was made in the Dakota cemetery. Among the many relatives and friends from out of town attending were Mrs. Geo. Lavayea, Mrs. Lydia Winter, Mr. Wilber Winter of Minneapolis, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Horner of Winona, Messrs. Ernest Horner and George Phillips of La Crosse, Mr. D. W. Peters of Onalaska.

DEFIES SALOON RULING

RACINE, Wis., April 1.—Mayor Goodland stated Saturday that he would pay no attention to the ruling of the attorney general that saloons must remain closed all day on election day, but would issue the customary proclamation to close only during the actual hours of the election from 6 o'clock a. m. to 7 p. m.

SOFT COAL MAY BE SUPPLANTED

Technical Men Predict That Water Power Will be The Great Substitute For Coal

IS PROVED GOOD ABROAD

Italy Developed Greatly By Electric Power From Rivers; Niagara Protected

Mine troubles in Europe and America, with a threatened shortage of coal, have called forth a reminder from technical men that in the future the world is likely to be far less dependent upon soft coal for industrial purposes than it is now.

Some statisticians compute that, at the present increasing rate of coal consumption in this country, present soft coal fields will be exhausted in 150 years. But before that time water power, transformed into electrical power, will have established itself as a substitute for coal—cleaner, cheaper and just as reliable.

Italy Develops
River energy in Italy alone has been estimated at as much as 10,000,000 horse power, and in the last twenty years the entire north of the country has been transformed by manufacturing development. Iron and copper are smelted by electric forges, and even farms are supplied with power.

For South America water power may prove even more important than to the rest of the world, as present knowledge indicates that that continent is practically without coal. Already development of water power has begun.

In the United States the greatest single water power development is at Niagara Falls, where about 400,000 horse power is generated and sent out within a radius of 200 miles, including Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse and Toronto, at a price not more than half that of power derived from coal.

Niagara Protected
Public sentiment has settled, once for all, that most of the water pouring over Niagara Falls must be preserved as a natural wonder; and the spectacle is permanently protected by a treaty between the United States and Canada, that limits the diversion of water to a small fraction of the total flow.

Congress is expected to pass legislation at the present session carrying out the terms of the treaty. At present there is a law which limits to 160,000 horse power the importation into this country of power generated on the Canadian side. This was designed to prevent the depletion of the Falls by Canadian power producers, but the treaty accomplishes that object now, so that, when the present law expires, there will not be necessary any restrictions upon the importation of power.

NEW SOMETHING ABOUT IT

Modest Appearing Man Proved He Had Right to Criticise Youthful Art Student.

An art student was copying one of Abbott S. Thayer's paintings at the New York Metropolitan Museum of Art one day, when a plainly dressed man who looked as if he might be a mechanic approached and, posting himself at the young man's elbow, watched him as he labored over his subject.

"You've got the angle of the mouth wrong, and the left eye is too oblique," remarked the man decidedly.

The student blinked angrily and the hand that wielded the brush trembled slightly, but he took no notice of the unsolicited criticism.

"There is too much yellow in your flesh tint," continued the man.

"Still no reply from the student, who ostentatiously slapped on more yellow in the high light on the nose.

"Did you hear what I said?" questioned the man.

"Yes, I heard," responded the student wrathfully, turning and glaring at his modest looking critic. "What do you know about it, anyway?"

"I ought to know something about it," was the smiling response. "It was I who painted the picture."

Unearned Praise.

He was only a poor little messenger boy.

When the young woman stepped into the elevator on the first floor of the Williamson building it was crowded with big men—and that messenger boy. In an instant the boy snatched his hat from his head.

One by one, but with shamed blushes, the men in the elevator followed suit. The young woman was not handsome, but she was neat and trim and self-possessed. Quickly she turned to the lad and said:

"You are a little gentleman—one of the old-fashioned sort!" and she flashed a wonderfully sweet smile upon him.

The child looked at her in amazement. He had been fumbling with his cap, but now he found the message he had stuck in its sweatband, took it out, stuck his cap on his head and began to whistle.

Appropriate Title.

"Farewell!" was the title of a poem sent to a certain newspaper, says the Laclede County Republican. "It's a good thing the gifted authoress bade it good-by," the editor remarked, "because she will never see it again."

INJUNCTION STOPS SALE OF GOODS

An injunction prohibiting the sale of goods of the Goldberg loan store, pending the final decision in the case of Leo Goldberg vs. Mrs. C. Goldberg, was granted by Judge E. C. Higbee in circuit court Saturday morning.

According to the evidence given Saturday morning, Leo Goldberg, a brother of C. Goldberg former owner of the local loan store on Pearl street, was residing at Kalamazoo, Mich., at the time of the latter's death in December. As soon as C. Goldberg died his brother came to La Crosse and made an agreement with his sister-in-law whereby she gave him $1,000 and enough money to clear his business of debt and he removed his stock to this city, forming a partnership.

Mr. Goldberg claims his stock amounted to $3,700 and Mrs. Goldberg claims $1,500 worth of stock. Mr. Goldberg started an action to procure his stock free from the partnership. An inventory of the stock will be taken before the case is finally settled.

The case of Katherine Binder vs. Lloyd Binder, an action to obtain a decree of divorce was decided in favor of the plaintiff, an interlocutory decree being granted. The grounds for divorce were desertion.

Action was continued in the divorce proceedings of Maude McKay vs. Emil McKay on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment and desertion.

The only way you can convince some men they aren't right in an argument is by giving in to them.

Special Election Notice

OFFICE OF CITY CLERK,
La Crosse, Wis., March 25, 1912.

To the Electors of the City of La Crosse:

Notice is hereby given that a special election is to be held in the several wards and election precincts of the City of La Crosse, on the second day of April, 1912, at which the question of making the Mississippi River Wagon Bridge free, is to be voted upon.

INFORMATION TO VOTERS.

The following instructions are given for the information and guidance of voters: A voter upon entering the polling place and giving his name and residence will receive a ballot from the ballot clerk, which must have endorsed thereon the names or initials of both ballot clerks, and no other ballot can be used. Upon receiving his ballot, the voter must retire alone to a booth or compartment and prepare the same for voting. A ballot clerk may inform the voter as to the proper manner of marking a ballot, but he must not advise or indicate in any manner whom to vote for. The voter, if he wishes to vote for a free bridge, should make a cross (X) in the square opposite the words "For a Free Bridge," and if he wishes to vote against the free bridge proposition he should mark a cross (X) in the square opposite the words "Against a Free Bridge."

The ballot should not be marked in any other manner. If the ballot is spoiled, it must be returned to the ballot clerk, who must issue another in its stead, but not more than three in all to any one voter. Five minutes' time is allowed in booth to mark ballot. Unofficial ballots or memoranda to assist the voter in marking his ballot can be taken into the booth, and may be used to copy from. The ballot must not be shown so that any person can see how it has been marked by the voter. After it has been marked it should be folded so that the inside cannot be seen, but so that the printed endorsement and signatures of the ballot clerks on the outside may be seen. Then the voter should pass out of the booth or compartment, give his name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand him his ballot to be placed in the box, and pass out of the voting place. A voter who declares to the presiding officer that he is unable to read, or that by reason of physical inability he is unable to mark his ballot, can have assistance of one or two election officers in marking the same, to be chosen by the voter; and if he declares that he is totally blind, he may be assisted by any person chosen by him from among the legal voters of the county. The presiding officer may administer an oath in his discretion as to such person's desirability.

THE PRIMARY

TOMORROW

The three important features of tomorrow's primary in which both city and county are concerned are the election of presidential delegates, the non-partisan judicial election and the county sanatorium referendum. The city, in addition, votes on the free bridge referendum.

La Crosse county is a progressive county, and without doubt both republicans and democrats will return delegations supporting progressive presidential candidates. Senator La Follette is the progressive republican candidate, Colonel Roosevelt not having entered the race in this state; Governor Wilson is the progressive democratic candidate. Note that the La Follette delegates are indicated by the words, "La Follette delegate," and the Wilson delegates are indicated by the words, "Wilson delegate." The delegates in the democratic column not marked, "Wilson delegate" are for Champ Clark, and the delegates in the republican column not marked "La Follette delegate" are for Mr. Taft. Pay particular attention to this: If you want to vote for La Follette delegates, it is not sufficient to put an "X" in the square after La Follette's name. You must place an "X" in the square after each of the six names marked "La Follette delegate." So, in case of each other candidate. The delegates must be voted for separately.

Notwithstanding the election of E. C. Higbee to the circuit bench is a foregone conclusion, considerable interest attaches to the election. In the judicial ticket you will find, after the name of Robert S. Cowie, the words "non-partisan." These words do not mean that Judge Higbee is a "partisan candidate." The fact is this is a non-partisan election. Judge Higbee's support, in his petition, shows a complete blending of all parties. On the other hand, Mr. Cowie's meager support is afforded by the more intense portion of a faction of a party, and is really based upon a hope of partisan votes. However, that Judge Higbee has brought a long contested court up to date and, at the same time, reduced the cost of conducting court approximately 50 per cent, is a fact that has brought him the support of leading republicans and democrats, progressives and regulars. His intelligent, fair, business administration will be endorsed at the polls.

Next we come to the tuberculosis sanatorium. Objection raised to it have fallen before the argument of those who have made a study of this great question. All competent authority agrees that the sanatorium is the greatest single factor in the battle to stamp out the disease. This is the verdict of years of patient research and experimentation. It is the truth, impregnably fortified in a citadel of facts. The one objection that may be advanced is that the person opposed to it objects to the expense, his pro-rata of which must necessarily be slight. But what far sighted voter, appreciating that tuberculosis costs La Crosse county approximately $300,000 a year, and that with the aid of a sanatorium we may practically wipe it out in ten years, will fail to see the dollar behind the penny? Humanity and horse sense are for the sanatorium.

The most important subject with which the city of La Crosse is concerned is the referendum on the proposal to make the Mississippi wagon bridge free from tolls. There has been a strong shifting of opinion from adverse to favorable on this subject, and there would have been no doubt of its passage but for one unfortunate fact entirely foreign to the merits of the affair. It had been planned to submit the dual question of a free bridge and city market. The common council killed the referendum on the market feature, at a time so late that it could not be forced on the ballot by petition. Many citizens who were warmly in favor of the two combined, fear that without the market the free bridge will amount to little. Some have considered voting against the free bridge at this time on that account, and still others have felt like doing so to show their resentment of what they regard a trick by the council. To these we suggest the broader attitude. La Crosse is going to have the free bridge and market. If we kill the free bridge now, it will be very hard to get it again before the public, because those who oppose it for selfish reasons will not understand that the vote against it was, in fact, not a vote against a free bridge, but a vote of protest against the killing of the market. On the other hand, if we get the free bridge now, it will be easy to follow this up with a market referendum at the election next fall. And, when the time comes, the council will not be given another chance to sidetrack the plan. The referendum will be secured on petition, without let or hindrance, by the council. Therefore, we believe it will be the part of wisdom for those who want relief from the unjustly high cost of living, to vote for a free bridge tomorrow.

TO AN ANONYMOUS CONTRIBUTOR

A writer signing himself "Citizen and Taxpayer" has mailed to The Tribune a long article in which he assails the income tax. It is replete with exactly the same misinformation which Mr. Cash White has been giving to the public. To publish it and to answer it would, alike, be repetition. However, while we have no time to indulge in "shadow fighting," we will publish the article and answer it in detail, provided its author is willing, as a concession to frankness, to furnish us his name. He says, "A fair issue need fear no public discussion." We add that a fair debater need not hide behind an anonymous signature.

Women's Suffrage In China

News Item—
News Item: Equal suffrage has been granted to the women of China by the Parliament at Nanking, according to a cablegram. Women voters will be subjected to the same restrictions as the men and must be able to read, write, own property and be at least twenty years old.

Here in America there is at least one question that we would like to see the women vote on. That is the men's clothes question. Women are good judges of style, quality and appearance, and could they express their opinion on where really good clothes can be found, we would carry the town by a landslide.

He emptied the glass and ordered another. He and the bartender were alone.

"After all, love is like money. It's better to live frugally upon the interest than to squander the capital and go bankrupt. And who cares, anyhow?"

He drank once more, dropped a half-sovereign upon the table, and pushed back his chair. His eyes were bloodshot now, and the brown of his skin had become a slaty tint; but he walked steadily enough into the reading room, where he wrote a short letter. It was not without a perverted sense of humor, for a smile twisted his lips till he had sealed the letter and addressed the envelope to George Percival Algernon Jones. He stuffed it into a pocket and went out whistling The Heavy Dragoons from the opera Patience.

Before the lighted window of a shop he paused. He swayed a little. From a pocket of his new coat he pulled out a glove. It was gray and small and much wrinkled. From time to time he drew it through his fingers, staring the while at the tawdry trinkets in the shop-window. Finally he looked down at the token. He became very still. A moment passed; then he flung the glove into the gutter, and proceeded to his own hotel. He left the letter with the porter, paid his bill, and went out again into the dark, chill night.

He was now what he had been two months ago, the man who did not care.

CHAPTER XIX.

Fortune Decides.

George and Fortune were seated at breakfast. It was early morning. At ten they were to depart for Jaffa, to take the tubby French packet there to Alexandria. They could just about make it, and any delay meant a week or ten days longer upon this ragged and inhospitable coast.

"Ryenne has probably overslept. After breakfast I'll go up and roust him out. The one thing that really tickles me," George continued, as he pored the tough rind from the skinny bacon, "is, we shan't have any luggage. Think of the blessing of traveling without a trunk or a valise or a steamer-rol!"

"Without even a comb or a hairbrush!"

"It's great fun," George broke his toast.

And Fortune wondered how she should tell him. She was without any toilet articles. She hadn't even a tooth-brush; and it was quite out of the question for her to bother him about such trifles, much as she needed them. She would have to live in the clothes she wore, and trust that the ship's stewardess might help her out in the absolute necessities.

Here the head-waiter brought George a letter. The address was enough for George. No one but Ryenne could have written it. Without excusing himself, he ripped off the envelope and read the contents. Fortune could not resist watching him, for she grasped quickly that only Ryenne could have written a letter here in Damascus. At first the tan upon George's cheeks darkened—the sudden suffusion of blood; then it became lighter, and the mouth and eyes and nose became stern.

"Is it bad news?"

"It all depends upon how you look at it. For my part, good riddance to bad rubbish. Here, read it yourself."

She read:

"My Dear Percival:

"After all, I find that I can not reconcile myself to the dullness of your olive-groves. I shall send the five hundred to you when I reach New York. With me it is as it was with the devil. When he was sick, he vowed he would be a saint; but when he got well, devil a saint was he. There used to be a rhyme about it, but I have forgotten that. Anyhow, there you are. I feel that I am conceding a point in regard to the money. It is contrary to the laws and by-laws of the United Romance and Adventure Company to refund. Still, I intend to hold myself to it."

"With hale affection,

"RYANNE."

While he thought he was pleasing her, each tender recollection, each praise, was in fact a nail added to her crucifixion, self-imposed. However, she never lowered her eyes, but kept them bravely directed into his. In the midst of one of his panegyrics he caught sight of his watch which he had placed at the side of his plate.

"By Jove! quarter to nine. I've got an errand or two to do, and there's no need of your running your feet off on my account. I'll be back quarter after." He dug into his pocket and counted out fifty pounds in paper and gold. "You keep this till I get back."

She pushed it aside, half rising from her chair.

"Fortune, listen. Hereafter I am George, your brother George; and I do not want you ever to question any action of mine. I am leaving this money in case some accident befall me. You never can tell." He took her hand and firmly pressed it down upon the money. "In half an hour, sister, I'll be back. You do not think that I was going to run away?"

"No."

"Do you understand me now?"

"Yes."

CHICAGO CARPENTERS STRIKE

CHICAGO, April 1.—A strike order calling out 17,000 carpenters is expected today, following the meeting of the executive council of that organization. The contract of the carpenters with the building contractors expires today and the demand of the men for a raise of five cents an hour to 65 cents have been refused. The employers have conceded a two and a half cent raise but the carpenters refused to accept this.

POWDER PLANT EXPLODES

TULSA, Okla., April 1.—Two men were killed, a team and wagon blown to atoms and $7,000 damage done by the explosion of the Central Torpedo company's nitro-glycerine plant, near here today. John Clipper, a stockman, and a shooter named Shuster are missing and are supposed to have been blown to bits.

COLUMBUS FLOODED

CAIRO, Ill., April 1.—Reports from Columbus, Ky., say that the lower section of the city which is the business section, is under four feet of water. Most of the people put their households goods on scaffolds and thus saved them. The damage is expected to exceed $50,000 and may run much higher.

HOUSE-KEEPERS IN

LA CROSSE PLEASED

Every cook in La Crosse is delighted with the rich, nut-like flavor of "Minnesota" macaroni and spaghetti. Even people who never liked these foods, say they could eat "Minnesota" macaroni every day.

Good macaroni and spaghetti are easily digested and they are always appetizing because they can be prepared in so many different ways. They are fine for children—making their bodies strong and healthy, and they give grown people the power of endurance without overtaxing the stomach.

But if you want that rich, nut-like flavor be sure and get the delicious "Minnesota" brand macaroni or spaghetti—made from the finest Northern Durum wheat, with all the nourishing Gluten left in. It is easily digested and never gets soggy. All good La Crosse grocers sell it.

DO YOU WANT THE COST OF LIVING REDUCED IN LA CROSSE? A FREE BRIDGE WILL DO IT!

Do you remember when you used to go down town to the market and buy a "Chunk of Pork" or a Quarter of Beef from the farmer? You got your potatoes, vegetables, oats for the horse, poultry and a dozen other things direct from the farm then, and you got them cheap.

You can't do that now!
Why?

Because most of the Minnesota farmers do not come here.

The farmer doesn't come here any more because the bridge tolls have kept him away. We have no market now, because the farmer doesn't come to town with his products, and it is the farmer that makes the market and it is the market that makes it possible to buy cheaply.

The farmer kept expecting that the bridge would be made FREE, as the city promised at the outset. It wasn't done. Then the farmers began to go to the small towns. Houston, with a thousand people, has a better market than La Crosse with 30,000 people. Dresbach, Hokah, Rushford, Dakota — all these little towns, have better farmer markets than La Crosse.

The figures in the office of the City Comptroller show how this came about. During the past ten years the income from the bridge has been an average of $1,800 per year less than it was during the first ten years of its existence, even in the face of constantly increasing tolls paid by autoists and pleasure seekers from the La Crosse end.

But ignoring the item of tolls from the La Crosse end, this means that in the year 1911 there were at least 7,200 less farmers' teams came into La Crosse than there did ten or fifteen or twenty years ago.

These 7,200 teams are now going instead to Houston, Dresbach, Dakota, Hokah and other small towns.

Supposing the value per load of these teams is $10.00 (a conservative estimate) this means that $72,000 a year of farm products that used to come to La Crosse and was sold in competition on our market, no longer comes here. It was this $72,000 a year in produce that made our farm market of former years, and enabled the La Crosse taxpayer to buy at a reasonable price. Bring back that market and that competition, AND THE COST OF LIVING WILL BE SUBSTANTIALLY LOWER.

Now let us see what it will cost to make the bridge free. Computation from figures taken from the office of the city comptroller shows that if the tolls are removed, even though the cost of operating is not reduced, the loss of revenue can be made up by a tax that will amount to no more than approximately 25 cents upon each $1,000 of taxable property. That the expense WILL be reduced no one doubts, and a fair estimate of that reduction brings the cost down to anywhere from 9 to 18 cents on each $1,000. Split the difference and make it 15 cents. Then the man whose home is worth $1,500 would pay 22 cents, and the man whose property was worth $3,000 would pay 45 cents.

Every citizen who availed himself of the farmers' market would be practically certain to save from five to ten times this amount every week in reduced cost of living.

When you go to the polls TUESDAY, APRIL 2nd, to vote, DON'T FORGET TO VOTE FOR THE FREE BRIDGE! Remember, it is a measure for the Benefit of the taxpayer and the working citizen. It means the restoration of a competitive market, lower cost of living and a bigger and better La Crosse.

PAINTERS DEFEAT WINONA BOWLERS

Get Revenge for Defeat of Last Sunday; Win One Game by One
Pin

By capturing two out of the three games at the Combination bowling alleys yesterday afternoon, the Painters, champions of the Commercial league, defeated the M. & G. team of Winona and obtained revenge for last Sunday's defeat by the Minnesota team. Two matches have now been played by these two teams and each aggregation has been successful in has been successful in winning one of them. A return game will be played at Winona next Sunday to settle the championship.

After losing the first game by forty-nine pins, the Painters came back strong and won the next two. The second game was one of the closest and most interesting matches ever seen here, the Painters finally winning out by a margin of but one pin. The last game was easy for the Painters as they defeated the Winona team by 104 pins. The locals scored a total of 2,544 pins while Winona made 2,478, the Painters winning out by sixty-six pins.

Poebling of the Painters was high score for a single game with a mark of 233 and several other good scores were also made. Heck of Winona bowled 205 and 200 and Paulson of the local team scored 201.

Following the games a banquet was given the visitors in Phillips hall and all invited enjoyed themselves greatly. The Winona team was escorted to the depot by the Painters.

H. Wittenberg, secretary of the local bowling league, was given a meerschaum pipe for the work he has done for the league during the season. A Yehle gave a speech at the banquet which was appropriate to the occasion. The scores:

FRED BOWERS ACT SCORES BIG HIT

Comedian and Dancer, with Barton and Fee, Are Top-Liners at Majestic
This Week

Assisted by a little lady who is one of the classiest dancers whose work has been seen locally, Frederick Bowers, musical comedy star, is leading the bill at the Majestic this week. The act closes the show, and is a fitting climax to as well balanced and entertaining a bill as has appeared here for many weeks. Bowers himself has a rich and well-trained voice, which combines with his pleasing appearance and inimitable style of singing clever songs, to make his act distinctive. The work of Miss Lillian Broderick, an attractive little dancer who assists Mr. Bowers, is also worthy of more than passing attention.

Tom Barton and Nell Fee might be billed as the "real thing in vaudeville." Their act is all class, and was an instantaneous hit yesterday from the time Miss Fee flashed her first smile across the footlights until the last note of the sweet "Rose of Killarney" song. The act is prettily costumed, both members of the team making several rapid changes. Their work as musicians is artistic to a degree.

Mona Monetta and Edwin Wilbur present an act that combines many musical features in correct proportions to secure the best results. Miss Monetta was especially apt in her imitations of child nature, and her singing displayed a voice of remarkable purity and range. Mr. Wilbur, who works with her is possessed of ability with the violin and banjo. He performs several difficult and original feats with his violin, using it to imitate the tones of other instruments successfully.

"The Vendetta," as LeWitt's program play is called, is interesting through the hard work it represents. Le Witte plays all of the seven characters himself, making thirty changes of costume, and appearing coolly in each after the lapse of an incredible small space of time.

WAR FOR MUSEUM

A very valuable addition to the normal museum was received last week by Prof. Sanford, custodian of the collection, in the form of an excellent group of Indian articles. They were loaned by Mr. Edwin Daniels of 426 South Eleventh street, who acquired them from his grandfather, A. Farnum, who was an officer in the Civil war and had collected the articles from the Sioux Indians in North and South Dakota. A pair of pa-pomaggons or skull crackers in the form of a stone and buffalo horn war clubs, two Sioux Indian dolls, a chain of bear teeth, a warclub for use on horseback, tobacco pouch, money bag, scalping knife and sheath, and medicine bag comprised the Indian collection. Some of the specimens were fine examples of Indian design and headwork. Other things also loaned by Mr. Daniels were a Civil war drill sword, a long rifle used in backwoods hunting, and two curiously modeled old pistols. This collection is the largest received by the normal museum at one time and shows that local people are appreciating the efforts of Prof. Sanford in gathering interesting articles illustrating stages in American history for use in the study of history.

Albino Puzzle.

The albino is still one of the puzzles of science. Beyond the knowledge that albinism is due to a lack of the normal pigment in skin and hair the physiologist and pathologist are about as much at sea regarding the real explanation of this freak of nature as they were a hundred or a thousand years ago. As to the ultimate why of the problem—why the pigment is missing in the albino—there is nothing but a collection of unconvincing guesses. Regarding the statistics of albinism nothing satisfactory is obtainable except in two countries. In Italy the albinos number about one in every twenty thousand of the population, whereas in Norway the rate is twice as high, with one in every ten thousand.

PUBLIC DEBATE

Touching the Free Bridge.

Geo. Dingskirchen was the owner of a farm in Minnesota, upon which there was a mortgage of $3,000. He had a wife and four children from six months to seven years of age. He worked early and late, as he wished to pay off the mortgage as soon as possible. The semi-annual interest was due in a few days and not having enough to make it up, he decided to take a load of produce to La Crosse. It was a cold, bleak winter day, and as he was nearing the great Mississippi river he debated with himself if he should cross on the bridge or drive over the ice. The road was good and the ice was safe, and there was no danger, if he kept the road, so he decided to drive over the ice and save the toll charges, as he needed every penny to make up the $90 interest, nearly due. He sold his produce all right, but a little late, and then he had some shopping to do for the family, to which he was deeply devoted. He started back the same way he came. During the afternoon a blizzard arose and he could hardly see the team which he drove. He missed the road, thinking he knew it better than the horses, and drove directly into a bad spot in the ice, and driver and team went to the bottom of the river. They have never been seen or heard of since. Imagine the anxiety of the wife and children when he did not return that night and the next day, and not to this day. He had no life insurance, the neighbors and the county are doing the best they can to help the poor widow to make ends meet. At last reports the family is doing fairly well and the widow is becoming reconciled to her fate.

MOTHERS IN NATIONAL CONGRESS

MRS. FREDERIC SCHOFF

MRS. W. B. FERGUSON

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—National Congress of Mothers in session here is attracting world wide attention because of the aid this body of determined women have given to the Child Welfare problem.

Mrs. Frederic Schoff of Philadelphia as president and Mrs. W. B. Ferguson, treasurer of the Congress, are to be congratulated on the success of their work throughout the past year.

WAUKON, IOWA

The annual high school banquet was held at the close of the winter term. One hundred and fifteen were seated in the C. P. parlors for the banquet. Fred Winters, a senior, acted as toastmaster and proved himself a past master of the art. The toasts (or roasts) were responded to by Hilma Vold, Earle Fourt, Agnes Kolsrud, Lois Pye, Miss Kleespie, Miss McDougal and Miss Lewis. Then they repaired to the hall, decorated with the "orange and the black."

The principal part of the entertainment was the "take off" on the faculty and a board meeting. Some of the representations were very true to life.

A terrible accident occurred at 10th Saturday afternoon. Douglass McNaughton was working with a wood saw in his mill. He bent to pull a piece of bark out of the way and in some way fell and the saw went through his head and body instantly. A fatality of accidents seem to attend the family. His grandfather was killed in the same mill, his father committed suicide, his mother dropped dead, and now his tragic death adds to the list.

Mr. Max Wittlinger sold his recently acquired property in West Waukon to Mrs. Mary Redding. He had to give immediate possession. They will go west in May to visit their daughter, Mrs. Leo Duffy, and may locate there. John Wittlinger has also discontinued his bakery and is at work in Lee's grocery store.

Alfred Barton went to Belfield, N. D., to "farm his claim" near there. He has been home most of the winter.

The David Flagle family of eleven members went Tuesday to their new home in Missouri.

The graduating class this year numbers 20—thirteen girls and seven boys.

The civic improvement league elected the following officers: President, Mrs. J. Barton-Jones; vice president, Mrs. Willard Minert; secretary, Mrs. P. N. Heiser; treasurer, Miss Ella Vold; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. E. O'Brien.

Superintendent Irwin has been down at St. Louis on iron mine matters.

ALDERMAN ROTH ANSWERS CHARGE

Declares that He Is Not Guilty of Dishonorable Act and Did Not Commit Himself

In answer to the resolution of the Trades and Labor council condemning the action of Aldermen F. Roth and Otto Granke in permitting the joint committee to believe that they had endorsed the majority report of the council finance committee on the question of submitting the market building project to a vote of the people, as dishonorable, Alderman Roth declares that he did not vote on the report and did not commit himself in any way.

"I made no promises concerning the market to anyone for or against the same. I did favor and am now in favor of establishing a market but I am not in favor of putting up the expensive buildings that were demanded. If there is anything that I can do to help establish a market I am only too glad to do so provided they do not spend money unnecessarily. I am willing to act along conservative lines and not in favor of extensive experiments. Our taxes are high enough now and we must do all in our power to keep them within reasonable limits. As far as the article in The Tribune and the editorial in the Leader-Press are concerned, I will say that I defy anyone to show dishonesty on my part or any attempt to mislead anyone and in this particular case I surely made no promises to any person whatsoever. The night of the committee meeting I stated that if I had my choice for the levying of a one mill tax and bonding the city I would prefer to have the mill tax but did not state that I was in favor of submitting that question to the people and when the vote was taken to leave the matter to a referendum I was silent. I did not want to commit myself on the matter that evening. After the meeting I was approached by no one to favor or oppose it and I signed the minority report because I did not believe that the people could afford spending one mill which amounts to about twenty-two thousand dollars for a market. I will say this also, that I am in favor of the referendum and would like to let the people pass on all important matters but I did not think that the men who appeared there that evening represented the people any more than I did. The law provides for a method of determining how the people can bring these questions to a vote and if they were sure several suggestions in the way of needed legislation. John Toeller scored the "river pirate" as being to blame for much of the illegal marketing of game fish. Alex Goyette, of French Island, urged the necessity of a law prohibiting fishermen from pulling their nets between sunset and dawn. He also said that the state game wardens should be present at every haul.

Urged Small Mesh Net
Charles Elgar, fisherman from Genoa, spoke in favor of the small mesh net, claiming that many game fish were "killed" and destroyed by getting caught in the larger mesh nets. He said this could be prevented by the use of the smaller mesh. He said that more fish freeze to death and are smothered every winter than are caught by the market fishermen. He denied that the big fishermen ever seined the spawning beds of fish.

Dr. C. W. Watterson spoke in the interests of harmony among the rod and seine fishermen. He said that it was only through co-operation that the association could hope to accomplish results. H. C. Evenson spoke in favor of bonding market fishermen and requiring them to take out a state license.

To Meet April 9
The fishermen and others interested gathered in groups after the meeting adjourned and many points were discussed which will be brought out at the next meeting of the hunting and fishing association at the court house Tuesday, April 9.

Among the out of town men who will be present and address the meeting are: A. A. Holmes, game warden, Trempealeau; S. P. Richtman, game warden, Fountain City; U. Carver Gantenbein, commercial fisherman, New Albion, Iowa; A. T. Herald, buyer, Diamond Bluff; David Gantenbein, commercial fisherman, Diamond Bluff; J. M. Axtell, representing the market fishermen of Lake Pepin.

THIRD DEATH IN ROCK ISLAND RIOT

Chauffeur, Negro, Is Found Shot to Death in Alley Following Fight with the Police

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., April 1.—One murder, an assault and scores of battered countenances, characterized Rock Island's Saturday night, the first day of open saloons since the fatal riot.

Mistaken for Chief of Police
A vicious attack by a gang of sluggers on Chief of Police Brinn has re-aroused Rock Island from its state of slumbering wrath. Walter Rice of Galesburg was the man assaulted. He is of the same build as Chief of Police Brinn and wore similar clothing.

Following a free-for-all fight at the Lincoln club and the interference of soldiers and police, Rufus Phoenix, chauffeur for Capt. Walter Rosenfield, campaign manager for Lawrence Y. Sherman, candidate for governor, was found dead in the alley outside of the club shortly after midnight this morning. He had been shot through the left lung.

PIEPER DIES AFTER A SHORT ILLNESS

Louis M. Pieper, aged 41, 714 South Fifth street, died of pneumonia at the St. Francis hospital this morning after being ill since Wednesday.

Mr. Pieper was born at Dorchester, Iowa, August 2, 1870. In 1894 he graduated from the W. B. U. and ever since his graduation he has been in the employ of the La Crosse Knitting works. He went home Wednesday not feeling well, and has been ill only since that day.

Surviving him are his mother, who lives in Galesburg, four sisters, Mrs. Emma Meyers of Watertown, S. D., Mrs. Tillie Owen, of Florence, S. D., Mrs. Edith Smith of McCloskey, N. D., and Mrs. Eugene Scharfberg of Galesburg, and one brother, Ed. Pieper of Manly, S. D.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

DR. CONDON SPEAKS ON SIR THOS. MORE

The last of the present series of lectures by Rev. Dr. Condon, the subject being "Sir Thomas More," was given before an immense audience at St. Mary's church last night. The subject was developed in such an interesting way, that throughout the entire hour and a half that the address lasted, the audience was held in rapt attention. In touching upon the different phases of Sir Thomas More's life, Dr. Condon brought out much history of England during the reign of Henry VIII, especially interesting to Catholics. He drew a portrait showing Sir Thomas More as a man of letters, a statesman, a family man, but also a man of constant faith, exemplary piety, and finally a martyr. He drew a moral lesson from the life of More, and exhorted all Catholics to be as firm in the faith as the great layman.

FORMER LA CROSSE PASTOR IS DEAD

Rev. Herman Kittel, one of the earliest pastors of the German Lutheran church of this city died at Potsdam, Germany, Feb. 17, according to word received here Saturday by Rev. J. Gamm. Rev. Kittel was pastor of the La Crosse church from 1865 to 1870 and was instrumental in the erection of the former German Lutheran church at Fifth and Cass streets. He retired several years ago.

cases. If that statement were true then the men who pay nearly seventy-five per cent of the taxes, as well as the newspapers that have been giving much valuable time, and space in their publications, would have to be classed as "professional shouters." The majority of voters as well as taxpayers, down in their hearts, are free bridge advocates. That is not saying that the free bridge will win, which it would have done without doubt had certain aldermen not broken faith with four of the best organizations in town, on the question of putting the public market matter up for a referendum vote.

But since politics is the important thing, you can perhaps not blame them for exerting their influences upon other men in the "ring" who also have axes to grind.

The writer for one, can see nothing clever in forcing men to change their minds after once having given their word on so important a matter as the public markets.

Voters! Take the opportunity now while you have it, and on Tuesday cast your ballot for a free bridge. The markets MUST come and will come much easier with a free bridge than without. The two things you are interested in is, whether you can afford to pay about 15 cents per thousand dollars more, upon your property valuation and will you get this, and more too, back, in the decreased cost of produce, etc., which your household is purchasing daily. Each additional load of food stuff entering the city has a tendency to fairly equalize prices. Your own experience, during the winter time, when the river is frozen over solid enough to allow team travel, shows this. The instant the Minnesota farmer markets his wood the price drops from $6 and $6.50 per cord to $5.50 and at times less.

The Minnesota farmer could as well haul his wood across the bridge, but will not do so on account of the 25 cents toll. This is an indisputable fact and you know it; hence it is easy for you to reason that if the farmer is unwilling to pay toll on his wood he is also unwilling to pay on his other stuff, and YOU are the loser thereby. It is not a question as to whether or not he can afford to pay. He does not and will not. The facts are we need his stuff and need it badly to hold down, in a measure, at least, the constantly increasing cost of living.

The writer has no "axe to grind," neither does he expect to remain in this city long enough to receive any of the many benefits which the free bridge and public markets are sure to bring. The small part he has taken in the matter of advancing the bridge and market propaganda has been done solely because he believes that a free bridge supplemented by markets will be of inestimable benefits to the wage earners.

In the last paragraph of Mr. Blashek's article he states, "I suppose this will stir up some renowned diplomat who will come out from his hiding and tell me that I am all wrong." The writer sincerely hopes that some day some one will be able to "get to" Mr. Blashek on this subject and make him see the error of his ways, or, if not that, to at least, succeed in having Mr. Keshalb-Blashek keep on one side of the fence particularly on the market matter. Whatever you do, Mr. Voter, vote for a free bridge and thus do yourself and family a good turn, as money is all you have to spend. Make it go as far as possible.

Yours for a free bridge and public markets,
JOHN C. TOELLER.

SUPREME COURT O. K.'S TRUST LAW

Missouri Anti-Trust Statutes Are Upheld by U. S. Supreme Court Decision Today

WASHINGTON, April 1.—By a sweeping opinion today the supreme court upheld the constitutionality of the Missouri anti-trust statutes and affirmed the decision of the supreme court of Missouri in ousting the Standard Oil of Indiana and its subsidiary corporations, the Republic Oil company and the Waters-Pierce company, from doing business within the state. The $50,000 fines imposed upon each company by the Missouri courts were affirmed.

The suit decided today was the biggest trust-busting attempt so far undertaken by the state of Missouri under its anti-trust laws.

It began on March 29, 1905, with the filing of a suit by Attorney-General Hadley (subsequently governor) in the supreme court of Missouri, alleging a gigantic conspiracy between the Standard Oil company of Indiana the Republic Oil company, and the Waters-Pierce Oil company to suppress all competition within the state.

The bill asked forfeiture of the charters of these corporations, ousting of them from the state, and, in the case of the Waters-Pierce company—a Missouri corporation—its dissolution.

On December 23, 1908, the Missouri supreme court sustained practically every contention of the state. The court accepted the fine from the Waters-Pierce company and granted a suspension of the decree enjoining them from doing business.

DIES AT HOME OF SON TODAY

Theodore Zischke, a resident of La Crosse for forty-two years, died early this morning at the home of his son, 1220 South Fifth street. The cause of death is given as paralysis. Mr. Zischke was 77 years old. He was a carpenter by trade, and was born in Germany. He retired from active work sixteen years ago. He is survived by one son, Albert, one daughter, Mrs. C. H. Bartz, nine grandchildren and a great-grandchild. The funeral will be held Wednesday at 3 o'clock from the residence of Albert Zischke, Rev. Gamm officiating.

An Interesting Store

The public is always glad to know facts. The interest of our townsfellows and townswomen never flags, and that's why we tell you something different every day. Queer things interest you; the peculiar has a charm. Not exactly queer, but evidently interesting, is the fact that our whole stock is exclusive. Among the new things are lavalliers. Graceful and dainty are these ornaments. Set with tourquoises, amethyst, topaz, pearls and diamonds. The display of them here is an occasion of pride, and they are very reasonably priced.

Chicago Grain Letter

CHICAGO, April 1.—With a flood of "long" wheat coming onto the market immediately after the opening today and all market indications helping the bears, there was an exciting tumble in wheat prices today. The only saving factor in the day's developments was the almost frenzied covering by shorts in Liverpool, where wheat supply is less than one-third of the figures of a year ago. Enormous Russian shipments offset this cable news and in Minneapolis receipts were far beyond expectations.

Corn trading opened on a scale down in sympathy with the break in wheat. A rally was started soon after the opening and the buying movement continued until prices had been boosted above Saturday's closing.

Oats had a strong undertone but the market was narrow. The weakness in wheat caused some selling. Provisions had a sharp advance and although there were some later

COAL MINES ALL SUSPEND TODAY

Miners in Every Branch of the Coal Trade Quit Work, Pending a Strike Vote

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 1.—Action in the bituminous coal miners' wage controversy shifted today from the seat of the long conferences with the operators here to the district headquarters and mining colonies where more than four hundred thousand soft coal miners obeyed an order from John P. White, president of the United Mine Workers, to suspend operations pending a referendum vote on the scale committee's compromise affected in Cleveland.

Vote on Wage Scale
That the anthracite miners during their temporary suspension, which became effective also today, may be asked to vote on a wage scale compromise in addition to the strike question, was the belief of President White before leaving here.

May be Short

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 1.—Indications today were that the suspension of the bituminous miners in Pittsburgh district No. 5, may last for only three days, the men returning to work Thursday, following the reconvening of the district convention on Wednesday, when the delegates will decide whether or not work shall be resumed pending the referendum vote on the acceptance of the wage agreement by operators and the union's policy committee.

English Strike Ends

LONDON, April 1.—Returns received up to noon today and including every coal mining district in the country, although many are far from complete, show that the proposal for the return of the miners to work under the recently passed minimum scale wage bill, carried in a ratio of about 3 to 2. The complete figures will not be announced until Wednesday, but there is now no doubt of the result.

JACOB GRESSTER IS FOUND DEAD

The body of Jacob Gresster, known as Captain Gresster, was found late this afternoon at his home near the head of French Island. The cause of death could not be ascertained, but it is thought that he died of heart failure. Gresster was last seen at the Dixon saloon, French Island, last night.

Gresster, who is 65 years of age and has been living on French Island for years, when seen yesterday was apparently in the best of health. He resided alone in a small house which he had recently purchased.

ALLEGED BURGLAR HELD FOR TRIAL

T. Askers, Thomas Bailey, James Gleason and Emil Pazour, arraigned on the charge of burglary before Judge Brindley this morning, pleaded not guilty and were held for trial. These men are alleged to have broken the seal on a Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul box car and to have stolen eighteen bottles of Guld's Peerless beer. Lawrence Berringer, charged with being implicated in the burglary, was discharged, the police being unable to identify him.

WOMAN NAMED FOR DENVER MAYOR

DENVER, Colo., April 1.—Make Mrs. Sarah P. Decker mayor of Denver; clear the political horizon and start things on a clean basis.

Women of the city began an active campaign today with this slogan to put Mrs. Decker's name on the ticket as a candidate for the chief office within the gift of the city.

The boom for Mrs. Decker has been started because of the chaotic condition in the local political arena.

It is sometimes better to be on the level than to climb upward. Good habits must be cultivated; bad ones grow like weeds.

BIRTHDAY FEAST FOR OLD CY YOUNG

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 1.—Old Cy Young, the veteran pitcher now with the Boston Nationals, celebrated his forty-fifth birthday here Saturday. In honor of his twenty-third consecutive year as a baseball player, a record held by no other present day player, the veteran was given a surprise dinner by his fellow players of the Boston team, which was attended by many of Young's friends and admirers from Columbia and South Carolina cities.

Before promising to fly with a young man it is up to a girl to investigate his ability as an airship chauffeur.

TRAMP MIGRATION HERALDS SPRING

Police Heed Harbinger of Spring by Changing Uniforms; 300 Tramps Here in March

Although all other harbingers of spring may be doubted the official forerunner of that season, the opening of the annual migration of the "knights of the ties," can not be misinterpreted. Spring is really here.

The discovery of the new arrival was made by members of the north side police force yesterday when the record of tramps who have affixed their signatures to the police register was found to contain exactly 300 names, all of whom have passed through La Crosse this month. Captain Dugan was immediately notified storage room. Today the force has with ordered unearthed from the

During the fall months there is a donned the lighter apparel while the fur coats have found their way to various places adapted for safe keeping until the winter months arrive again.

According to the records at the north side police station more than 500 tramps have passed through La Crosse this year. Of this number about 75 were caught in the January cold wave and 125 passed through during January. If the migration continues at the usual rate it is thought that the April registration will far exceed the present month.

Eighteen men were accommodated at police station No. 2 last night while another large crew found lodging at No. 4 police station.

During the months of April, September and November hundreds of tramps swarm through the north side railroad yards. Nearly every train entering the city during these months carries a human cargo tucked away on the "blind baggage" or riding the "bumpers." As a general rule they spend a few hours here to sample the food or if it is late in the evening will apply at the police station for lodging, leaving on another train the next day.

During the fall months there is a general scramble toward Milwaukee and Chicago, where bread-lines and jails without stone-piles prove an excellent refuge for the winter. In the spring a general scattering takes place.

BANDIT KILLS TWO

PORTLAND, Ore., April 1.—Poses are searching the surrounding country today for a highwayman who held up an automobile party at Riverdale and when the party refused to halt, opened fire with a shot gun. He killed two of the motorists and wounded a third.

HAVE A MISSION FOR LUMBERJACKS

International Falls, Wis., Has Started Movement to Care for the Men from the Woods

INTERNATIONAL FALLS, Wis., April 1.—The men's reading, recreation and rest rooms, Second avenue, International Falls, is going strong now. Camps are breaking up. No one ever believed the hall could be filled every night with men only, of every class, listening to messages of good advice.

Already, men have been reclaimed and are in turn earnest workers for others. Helpers from every part have turned up and American, Canadian, Swede, English, Scotch, Irish and Norwegian speakers go on an hour or

FREE IF IT FAILS

Your Money Back if You are Not Satisfied With the Medicine We Recommend

We are so positive that our remedy will permanently relieve constipation, no matter how chronic it may be, that we offer to furnish the medicine at our expense should it fail to produce satisfactory results.

It is worse than useless to attempt to cure constipation with cathartic drugs. Laxatives or cathartics do much harm. They cause a reaction, irritate and weaken the bowels and tend to make constipation more chronic. Besides, their use becomes a habit that is dangerous.

Constipation is caused by a weakness of the nerves and muscles of the large intestine or descending colon. To expect permanent relief you must therefore tone up and strengthen these organs and restore them to healthier activity.

We want you to try Rexall Orderlies on our recommendation. They are exceedingly pleasant to take, being eaten like candy, and are ideal for children, delicate persons, and old folks, as well as for the robust. They act directly on the nerves and muscles of the bowels. They apparently have a neutral action on other associate organs or glands. They do not purge, cause excessive looseness, nor create any inconvenience whatever. They may be taken at any time, day or night. They will positively relieve chronic or habitual constipation, if not of surgical variety, and the myriads of associate or dependent chronic ailments, if taken with regularity for a reasonable length of time. 12 tablets, 10 cents; 36 tablets, 25 cents; 80 tablets, 50 cents. Sold in La Crosse only at our store.

two nightly and most of the work is done voluntarily.

Beds are provided, but up to thirty lie on the tables, seats and chairs with books for their pillows. The great rush in from the woods has not reached its high water mark yet and Rev. Walter Duff and his willing helpers wonder how they will cope with any more. However, plans on a bigger scale are being made. A committee has been formed to share the burden of the work and help from all good people in the large cities and everywhere is looked for in this great dumping ground of both countries.

Fort Frances people are assisting well and a border mission is being formed to continue the great and desperate needy work so well and courageously begun.

All expenses up to date were cleared by the city council, but more cots, hymnbooks and more money is required immediately to save these men who perhaps are often more sinned against than sinning. Rev. Robert Smith, treasurer, and Mr. Fred Megson, financial and corresponding secretaries, will gladly receive and acknowledge contribution daily. Address, International Falls or Fort Frances, Ont.

I INVITE EVERY WOMAN

Every woman is invited to consult our Staff of Physicians, Surgeons and Specialists, at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N.Y., by letter at my expense—R.V. PIERCE, M.D.

There is every reason why women should not trust their delicate constitutions in the hands of unskilled persons. It requires a thorough medical education to appreciate and understand the female organism. There is every reason why she should write a specialist.

As a powerful, invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For over-worked "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is unequalled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nerve "Favorite Prescription" is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, fainting spells, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the distinctly feminine organs. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is devised and put up by a physician of vast experience in the treatment of woman's maladies. Its ingredients have the indorsement of leading physicians in all schools of practice.

The "Favorite Prescription" is known everywhere as the standard remedy for diseases of women and has been so regarded for the past forty years and more.

Accept no secret nostrum in place of "Favorite Prescription"—a medicine of known composition, with a record of forty years of satisfaction behind it. Sold by all Druggists.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. One to three a dose. Easy to take as candy.

Send 31 one-cent stamps to pay cost of wrapping and mailing only on a free copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, cloth-bound. Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y.

The 1912 INDIAN Motorcycle

The Indian Motorcycle is all that the name implies—it is the ideal machine for the business man. The Motorcycle of Quality, Material, Speed and Workmanship.

The records of the past are good enough evidence. It represents the acme of perfection as far as Speed, Power and Reliability are concerned. It amply fulfills the wants of the public, whose requirements have not received the attention they deserve. The winner of the Tourist Trophy, held in July, 1911, on the Isle of Man, England, now on exhibition here.

THE CAR THAT DELIVERS THE GOODS

The success which has come to the Ford Motor Company has not been a matter of compliment, but the genuine reward of merit. The Ford Motor Company was established in 1903. The original organization is intact the same executive as in the beginning. The same men in control. The same forces in operation—but with vastly enlarged possibilities. More than 100,000 Ford cars are in use today. In excess of 80,000 of these are Ford Model T's, our present car. You find them in every part of the civilized world. Ford branches are established in 32 of the largest cities of America, England, Europe and Australia. More than 4,000 individual Ford dealers are scattered over the entire United States and Canada.

Model T Delivery Car, $700
Fully Equipped

Facts About the Model T Delivery Car

Ford Model T Delivery Car—Is the lightest weight delivery car on the market—weighs 1,200 pounds.

It is the strongest car ever made, weight for weight—carries 750 pounds of merchandise.

It is cheaper to maintain than a team of horses—maintenance expense somewhere around 2 cents a mile.

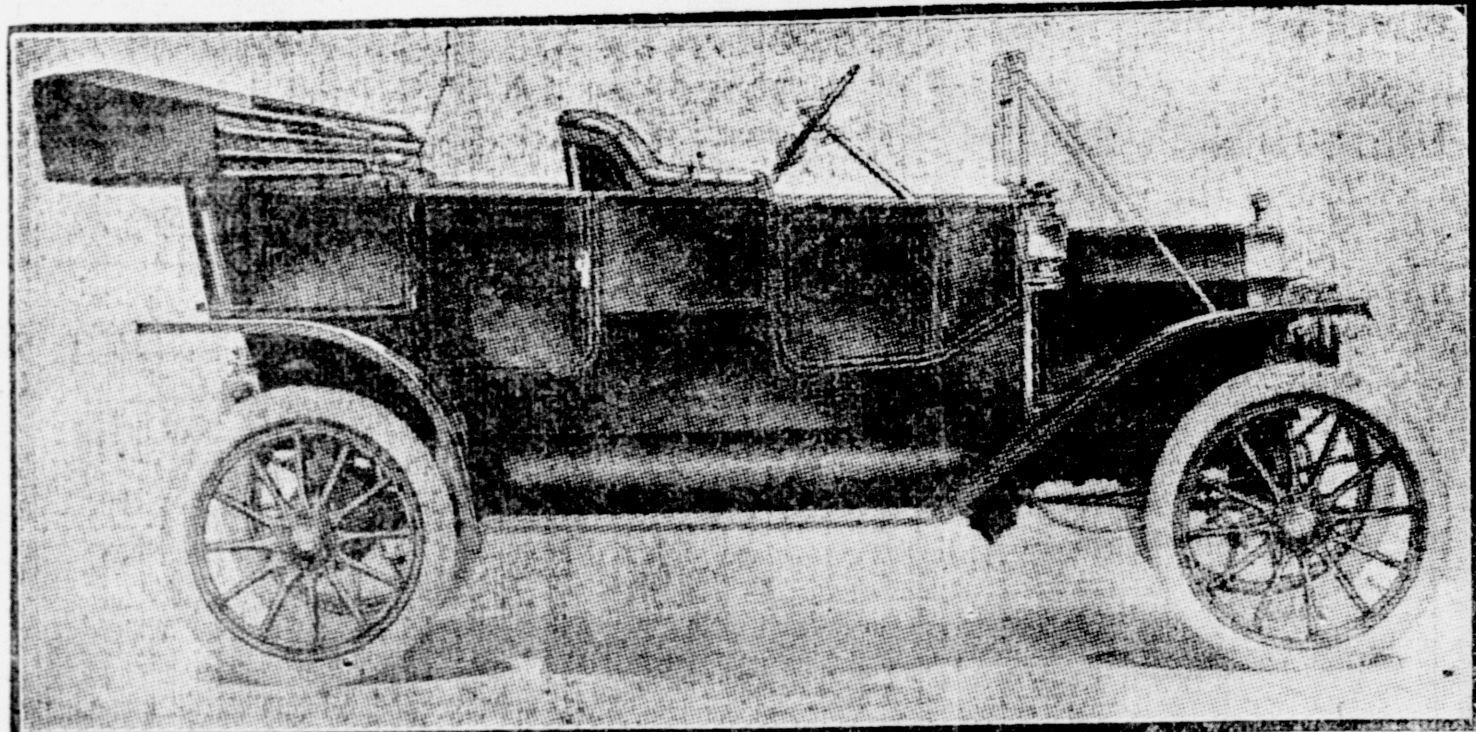

It is the easiest of cars to keep in order because it has no ignition troubles, a shower of sparks with every revolution of the flywheel. It has no transmission troubles, because of special Ford planetary transmission, and superior oil-proof and dust-proof casings.

It has no radiator troubles, because of its always reliable thermo-siphon water-cooling system.

It has no carburetor troubles, because of its new design, float-feed automatic, with dash adjustment always accessible without tearing the car open.

It has no fuel troubles, because it carries in its tank gasoline enough to drive it from 250 to 280 miles (25 to 28 miles per gallon).

It has no brake troubles, because of its three-point suspension, insuring absolute freedom from all strain. Rear axle carries no weight save its own, rear springs being attached directly to hubs.

This is a business man's car and should appeal strongly to those who desire a light car for both pleasure and business purposes. It is practical, dignified and popular car. It is a man-sized car, not a miniature; possesses speed, power and durability, and for all-around purposes compares more than favorably with cars at considerably higher prices.

The Feature of the Year is the Ford Model T Delivery Car

Not an experiment, but a "proved quantity." It has had its try-out—the hardest test ever given any car, and has come out with flying colors. For two years the Wanamaker stores in New York and Philadelphia, and the Bell Telephone Co. all over the country have been using the Ford Model T Delivery Car in their business—through city streets, over country roads, in all sorts of weather, with magnificent success. With this record behind it, the car is offered to the business world as the solution of the problem of delivering any and all goods that come within a weight of 750 pounds.

WHY BUY A FORD?

You are asked to buy a Ford car for what it will do, based upon what it has done. You are asked to buy a Ford car, because it is a better car—not because it is a cheaper car. You are asked to buy a Ford car because it is the product of Henry Ford, who is conceded the world over to be the one great genius in the automobile industry—the man who has forced refinements and improvements in automobile construction along original lines.

No such word as "risk" or "chance" can be applied or can be used when you buy a Ford car. You are buying an impregnable surety—an automobile that will serve you and your family—serve your pleasures and your business—that will enter into your life work as well as the enjoyments of your life, to the fullest possible extent, with a price you can well afford to pay, and with an assurance of such economy in operation that the maintenance of your car will not prove a burden to you.

There are more than 100,000 Ford cars in service today. Of this number more than 80,000 are Model T's.

Ford Model T cars are in service in every civilized country the world over.

There must be unusual merit in Ford Model T cars to satisfy this world-wide market.

S.S.S. DRIVES OUT RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism is due to an excess of uric acid, an irritating, inflammatory accumulation which gets into the circulation because of weak kidneys, constipation, indigestion, and other physical irregularities which are usually considered of no importance. Nothing applied externally can ever reach the seat of this trouble; the most such treatment can do is soothe the pains temporarily; while potash and other mineral medicines really add to the acidity of the blood, and this fluid therefore continually grows more acid and vitiated. Then instead of nourishing the different muscles and joints, keeping them in a normally supple and elastic condition, it gradually hardens and stiffens them by drying up the natural oils and fluids. Rheumatism can never be cured until the blood is purified. S. S. S. thoroughly cleanses and renovates the circulation by neutralizing the acids and driving the cause from the system. It strengthens and invigorates the blood so that instead of a sour, weak stream, depositing acid and painful corrosive matter in the muscles, joints and bones, it nourishes the entire body with pure, rich blood and permanently cures Rheumatism. S. S. S. contains no potash, alkali or other harmful mineral, but is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks of great purifying and tonic properties. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free to all who write.

SOCIETY HOSIERY

THE SILK STOCKINGS WITH THE STYLE, WEAR AND FIT

Coles Phillips, the famous New York artist, has said woman must lavish most of her attention on the shoes and stockings that dress her feet.

He is right. No woman of today can afford to wear ill-fitting shoes and shoddy stockings, and no shoes, however expensive, look well over a flimsy, cheap looking hose.

SOCIETY STOCKINGS

Are woven of heavy pure silk, are exceptionally long, with reinforced heel, sole and toe and double knit garter top. They have all the durability of the old time hose combined with the beauty of the silk. In their weaving the greatest care has been taken, with the result that there is no unseemly bagging at the ankle or instep. SOCIETY STOCKINGS look their part—they are fine, sleek and thoroughbred.

SOCIETY HOSIERY is not on sale at the shops, but must be purchased from us direct by mail. In this way we eliminate the dealer's profit, greatly reducing the cost to you and also prevent the substitution of an inferior grade of hose.

These stockings positively will not run; they come in all colors, and will be sent by mail to any address, all charges prepaid. If on inspection you are not satisfied—you to be the sole judge—your money in full will be refunded.

Special prices to introduce our Society Silk Hosiery good for ten days only.

WHY?

BECAUSE, the President by all political rule and precedent is entitled to a renomination.

BECAUSE, he has fearlessly and impartially performed his duty and enforced the law, and carried forward the policies of the Republican party, proving himself a genuine progressive.

BECAUSE, he has accomplished more in constructive statesmanship during his term than is usually done in twice the time, and BECAUSE, if re-elected he will consummate achievements already begun, will negotiate peace treaties with the great powers of the world, will take the tariff out of politics, will settle the trust question in accordance with law and justice, will secure currency reform and put an end to panics.

Furthermore in the words of Theodore Roosevelt, "No man of better training, of more dauntless courage, or sounder common sense and of higher honor and finer character has ever come to the presidency than WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT."

MISS SABELWITZ
URGES HOSPITAL

In Letter to Voters of This County, Member of the Committee Asks for Support

In a letter to the La Crosse county voters Miss Nettie Sabelwitz of the Permanent Tuberculosis committee urges the endorsement of the sanatorium proposition. The letter in full is as follows:

To La Crosse County Voters:

The vote on the County Tuberculosis Sanatorium is now before you. What shall it be? Surely La Crosse cannot possibly afford to vote against such a project. Each and every voter should feel a moral obligation to the community, to himself and his family by casting his vote on April 2nd. The people have recognized, many indeed through personal contact, their true foe in tuberculosis and are now stirring to the combat throughout the civilized world. He would be held an ignorant person who should learn now for the first time that tuberculosis is a communicable and therefore a preventable disease and that in most cases if properly treated in early stages, it is curable. Tuberculosis causes more deaths than any other single disease. In the United States this scourge claims no less than two hundred thousand of our citizens annually and of that number a good proportion is taken from our own community. This last month we have had within our midst what might generally be called a scarlet fever epidemic. What a stir of anxiety it immediately created. But how many of us cautious ones are stirred to such a pitch of alarm by the fact that walking the streets of La Crosse, attending our theaters, etc., today are a number of advanced tubercular patients who have no place to go for proper treatment and instruction. It is bad business, bad community business to allow such conditions to exist in our clean, progressive La Crosse. And you know, Mr. Voter, that by the simple act of casting your vote for the Sanatorium, you can remedy such a condition. This is not a matter for those who have tuberculosis, nor to the medical profession, but should be of general interest for many reasons. Let us who are sound and well physically bring before our vision thousands of pale faces, to our ears the cry of helpless suffering, to our hearts the tears of sorrowing friends who must witness these sad scenes, and then resolve to protect the coming generation against the horrible plague. Let each one of us by word and deed become a warrior against physical pain and mental anguish. Make La Crosse county stand out once more as a leading light to the other more lethargic counties that are not yet fully aware of the responsibility God has put upon them. Believe me, very sincerely,

NETTIE SABELWITZ,
Member Permanent Committee.

PLOT AGAINST COLONEL

LETTER GOES TO ST. PAUL NEWSPAPERS WARNING OF ANARCHISTS' PLOT TO KILL T. R.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 1.—That there is good reason for precaution which the St. Paul police took Friday night to guard Col. Theodore Roosevelt is indicated by a letter which the postoffice of this city delivered the newspapers.

It is postmarked at Brainerd, Minn., and reads (with spelling, grammar and punctuation revised) as follows:

"Seeing that Mr. Roosevelt is going to make a short stop in your city, it makes me feel as if I must inform you to have a close watch over Teddy, as I belong to the anarchist party, and as it is a rule in our organization to get rid of some such men as Taft, Roosevelt or Bryan.

"I am not the one that is laying for Teddy, I only inform you to have Teddy guarded, and if our party don't get the chance to lay him out in your city, they will follow him up on his western trip.

"I make my home at present in Milwaukee."

The automatic telephone service is a success in Havana, where there are 7,000 subscribers.

THE FIRST GRAY
HAIR SIGN OF AGE

Easy Way to Preserve Natural Color of the Hair and Make It Grow

A harmless remedy, made from common garden sage, quickly restores gray hair to natural color. The care of the hair, to prevent it from losing its color and lustre, is just as important as to care for teeth to keep them from discoloring. Why spend money for cosmetics and creams to improve the complexion, and yet neglect your hair, when gray hair is even more conspicuous and suggestive of age than wrinkles or a poor complexion? Of the two, it is easier to preserve the natural color and beauty of the hair than it is to have a good complexion.

All that is necessary is the occasional use of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of common garden Sage and Sulphur combined with other valuable remedies for dry, harsh, faded hair, dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair. After a few applications of this simple, harmless remedy, your hair will gradually be restored to its natural color, in a short time the dandruff will be removed, and your hair will no longer come out but will start to grow as Nature intended it should.

Don't neglect you hair, for it goes further than anything else to make or mar your good looks. You can buy this remedy at any drugstore for fifty cents a bottle, and your druggist will give your money back if you are not satisfied after using. Purchase a bottle today. You will never regret it when you realize the difference it will make in your appearance.

CAVIARE FOUND IN MISSISSIPPI

New Industry Gives Promise of Developing Along Big Lines; Its Source of Profit

WINONA, Minn., April 1.—When it is shipped from Minnesota, Iowa and Wisconsin, a jet black, shiny, gelatinous mass of tiny globules, the pails or bags in which it is packed are labeled "sturgeon roe." By time the product has reached its destination and is gracing a platter in a New York, London or Paris restaurant it has become "Russian Caviare."

The deception is an innocent one, since the roe of the Mississippi sturgeon has been found to be quite equal in delicacy and flavor to that obtained from the sturgeon of the Don and Dnieper of Russia. The Mississippi product being new on the market, however, sells better under the old familiar name.

For many years Russian fishermen have made millions of dollars annually gathering and preparing a caviare. The sturgeon lives in the northern stretches of the Mississippi; in enormous numbers but it was not until two years ago that fishermen, seizing the cue of their northern Russia brethren, took up roe gathering as a side line. They have found it immensely profitable and the industry is fast taking on good-sized proportions.

The "roe-can" is a part of every fisherman's outfit and local dealers along the river report that last year they, on the average, marketed 2,000 to 3,000 pounds of the product. A quarter million pounds is probably a low estimate of the total yield. Much of it was shipped abroad as Americans have not yet acquired the caviare habit to the same extent that the people of European countries have.

The sturgeon, he native of Russia or the upper Mississippi, is enormously prolific. Three million ova is about the average production of the female in a season. Not infrequently one-third of the weight of a sturgeon is found to be the roe. One caught by a fisherman near here last fall weighed 50 pounds. The roe sold for $14.56. The dressed fish brought $3.50, making a total return to the fisherman of $17.50, or about 35 cents a pound for his fish, live weight.

The sturgeon casts its spawn in June in the upper Mississippi. The roe gathering season extends from September until that time. Much of it is taken from fish which the shermen seine from the river through the ice in the winter. Eighty cents a pound is about the average price received by the fishermen. The sturgeon are caught in nets and seines. They live out in the main channel in the company of the carp, buffalo and sheephead.

ONALASKA, WIS.

Mrs. W. H. Aldrich entertained a few young people at her home Tuesday afternoon in honor of the tenth birthday of her daughter Mareta. Games were indulged in by the little folks and a very pleasant time was spent. Dainty refreshments were served before their departure.

Mrs. Lee Merrill of St. Paul arrived from Galesville Wednesday noon to spend a couple days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Merrill.

Mrs. Don Comeau returned to her home at Austin, Minn., Wednesday after spending a couple weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bentzen.

Mrs. Eugene Hunt and Miss Florence Moore of La Crosse spent Wednesday afternoon with Miss Lucile Reynolds.

Rev. W. C. Snow, present pastor of the Methodist church here, and Mrs. Snow will leave for Boscebel in a couple of weeks, where they will reside on a farm. They have made a great many friends during their residence here, who will regret to hear of their plans.

Alex Kommerstad left for Albany, Minn., Thursday, where he will be employed during the summer.

Gertrude, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, who has been confined in the Lutheran hospital at La Crosse for a few weeks, was brought home Friday very much improved.

T. V. Phelps, who has been traveling through the state of Iowa, the past month, for the pickle company here, arrived home Thursday to spend a few days with his family.

The high school closed Friday for a week's vacation. The out of town teachers left for their respective homes Friday evening.

The senior and junior girls of the agricultural school were at La Crosse Friday afternoon to attend the demonstration of cooking with paper bags at the Masonic temple.

Mr. Andrew Storandt, who has been very ill for the past month, is improving slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sjolander are the parents of a son born Friday at the Lutheran hospital at La Crosse.

Charles Randall of Rochester, Minn., arrived Friday night to spend a couple days with relatives here.

Robert Randke of Cresco, Iowa, is visiting at the home of J. H. Hodge and family.

Mrs. Jessie Turner of this city is preparing to open a millinery store in the building west of A. N. Moore's meat market in a short time. Mrs. Turner has had a great deal of experience in this business and there is no doubt but what she will be well patronized.

E. T. Johnson returned from Black River Falls Friday, where he spent a few days on business for the Pickle company.

Miss Ethel Olberg of La Crosse spent Thursday night with Miss Vance Pooler.

CONFIDENCE

Judas is a figure in history NOT because he was Judas.

The name of Judas has lived through the centuries of monotonous affairs and has echoed down the ages, because it typifies the Betrayer.

There are Judases now, just as when history was new.

Betrayal will exist so long as does Jealousy, its parent, and jealousy will live because in the endless war for the survival of the fittest, in the ceaseless rivalry for gain, some—the fitter—must advance; others—less capable—must slip back to make way. The slipping foot irritates the Temper, Temper is the offspring of Ignorance, and Ignorance is the cradle of Jealousy, of Hate, of Betrayal.

And so we say there ARE Judases, and WILL be.

Betrayers of Confidence are perhaps the most dangerous menace to society.

Every human relation is based upon confidence—or the lack of it.

You would not want a Judas for a business partner; you would not want a Judas spying upon your confidential personal or business affairs.

Why?

Because Judas would betray you—perhaps for money, maybe without reason—just because it was Judas.

Your enemy, your rival, your competitor could buy you out, honey away your secrets, perhaps ruin you—through the Judas in possession of YOUR confidential affairs.

We have said all this to impress upon you the value of CONFIDENCE in business.

It is the fundamental element.

When you seek to attract people to your store, or office or to your way of thinking, you must FIRST establish confidence. About all that is necessary is good Old Fashioned Honesty and to let PEOPLE KNOW about it. You may be as honest as the "day is long," but if you make it a secret you will gain no one's confidence—the thing you must have to WIN.

We will assume that you are honest—99 per cent of the people are—that what you offer the public is Honest. We will assume they would have confidence in you and want your offering if you let them know the facts.

Then the natural, logical, connecting link is to TELL THEM.

You cannot tell very many verbally. Few would see a window card and less would have Confidence in that method of Publicity. Advertise and you reach thousands. Advertising is like a dinner menu—it offers a dozen times what you can eat, so you select a few of the most ATTRACTIVE dishes and leave the rest.

When you use PERSONAL LETTERS it is like offering a hungry man ONE TEMPTING DISH. He eats it ravenously. His whole attention is centered upon the ONE thing. With the personal letters you reach the people DIRECTLY INTERESTED (for you would address no others)—reach people who accept it, absorb it EAGERLY, for what man or what woman has not felt the Magic of the Mails—that subtle Expectancy that accompanies the visit of the postman? Hungry people will rush from breakfast to the mail box; they read hand bills reluctantly—or NOT AT ALL.

Offer something Honest and Attractive in a personal letter and you get their Interest, their Confidence and their Inquiry. Then the letter's mission is performed; it's up to YOU, to your salesmanship and your persuasive powers in the personal contact the letter has brought about.

We will get out these Confidence-winning typewritten personal letters at reasonable cost, because we have every modern electrical and mechanical device to minimize cost.

We also handle all branches of stenographic work—confidential personal correspondence, or humdrum copying—all in the strictest confidence. We have no back fence. We don't know our neighbors.

NOTICE OF JUDICIAL AND NATIONAL DELEGATE ELECTION AND REFERENDUM VOTE ON TUBERCULOSIS SANITARIUM

OFFICE OF COUNTY CLERK,
La Crosse, Wisconsin, March 25, 1912.

To the Electors of La Crosse County:—

Notice is hereby given that a Judicial and National Delegate Election is to be held in the several towns, wards and villages in the County of La Crosse on the second day of April, 1912, at which the officers named below are to be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to this office, are given under the title of the office and under the appropriate party or other designation, each in its proper column, together with the question submitted to a vote, in the sample ballot below.

INFORMATION TO VOTERS.

The following instructions are given for the information and guidance of voters.

(A) A voter upon entering the polling place and giving his name and residence, will receive a ballot from the ballot clerk which must have endorsed thereon the names or initials of both ballot clerks, and no other ballot can be used. Upon receiving his ballot, the voter must retire alone to a booth or compartment and prepare the same for voting. A ballot clerk may inform the voter as to the proper manner of marking a ballot, but he must not advise or indicate in any manner whom to vote for.

(B) A voter may vote upon a question submitted to a vote of the people by making a cross (X) or mark in the square at the right of the answer which he intends to give.

(C) The ballot should not be marked in any other manner. If the ballot is spoiled, it must be returned to the ballot clerk, who must issue another in its stead, but not more than three in all shall be issued to any one voter. Five minutes' time is allowed in booth to mark ballot. Unofficial ballots or memorandum to assist the voter in marking his ballot can be taken into the booth, and may be used to copy from. The ballot must not be shown so that any person can see how it has been marked by the voter.

(D) After it is marked it should be folded so that the inside cannot be seen, but so that the printed indorsements and signatures of the ballot clerks on the outside may be seen. Then the voter should pass out of the booth or compartment, give his name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand him his ballot to be placed in the box, and pass out of the voting place.

(E) A voter, who declares to the presiding officer that he is unable to read, or that by reason of physical disability he is unable to mark his ballot, can have assistance of one or two election officers in marking same, to be chosen by the voter; and if he declares that he is totally blind, he may be assisted by any person chosen by him from among the legal voters of the county. The presiding officer may administer an oath in his discretion as to such person's disability.

(F) The following is a facsimile of the official ballot:

ABIDING PLACE OF MICROBES

Eliminate the Vacant Seat and the Church Will Bloom into Splendid Health.

There are microbes that are menacing the church with dire defeats; they're bacilli that produce the plague entitled Vacant Seats. There's an influence arising from these weary, dreary pews, that's as pestilential as the breath of rank, malarial dews. If diagnosis we would make of churches void of heat, we'd find the mercury had dropped down in the vacant seat. The doctors ought to busy get, the church's health to save, because this situation is becoming very grave. Napoleon wished once, 'tis said, to break a conquered bell; his soldiers swung their hammers free, and pounded hard and well; but firm, uninjured, strong, it stood, resisting every stroke, until they hit from the inside, and then, it quickly broke. Thus what the church needs most to fear, is not the outside sin, but spineless, lackadaisical inanity within. And that which blocks and trips the church, and rolls her down the stair, is the nominal adherent who, however, isn't there. If we could but eliminate this stunting empty seat, the church would soar in glorious flight, amazingly complete. There is a remedy that works at any time and place; it's every one, at every time, and always, in his place. If you would give this formula a keen, conclusive search, just try it well, next Sunday, at the Presbyterian church, or any place of worship where you feel you'd like to be, and the medicine and healing you'll find tally to a T.—The Continent.

REMEMBER THE LOVED ONES

Pathetic Religious Ceremony That is Observed by People of the Isle of Ushant.

In the Island of Ushant—the "Isle of Fear"—there exists a custom probably unknown in any other part of Christendom. When a native dies abroad or is lost at sea, his relatives have a small wax cross made, some seven inches long. This is solemnly taken to the church and presented to the priest, who deposits it in a box, shaped like a cinerary urn, that hangs on the south side of the altar of St. Joseph. This is called the "Pro Elia" cross, and is supposed to stand for the spirit of the dead. These memorial symbols are allowed to accumulate in the box till the next church mission comes round. As these revival services are held only once in every four or five years, the number of crosses may be very considerable. A day is then set apart for their solemn interment. It is the great day, the climax of the mission. The church is draped in black and crowded with a mourning congregation, many of whom break out into loud wailing. The crosses are brought from their urn in solemn procession, a requiem mass is said over them, and then they are carried to the churchyard, the iron door of the tomb is unlocked, and they are interred with full honors. Throughout the year hardly a day passes but some pious soul comes to sprinkle the tomb with holy water and say a prayer before it for the dead.—Wide World Magazine.

Nicknames in History.

The history of nicknames would be an enormous compilation, for it would be the history of the human race. The most ancient chronicles contain notable examples, and, doubtless, prehistoric man, the lake dweller, the cave man, thus dubbed his neighbor. None have escaped, from the highest in the land to the lowest. Kings and statesmen, saints and sinners, poets, playwrights, wits—all have had these "eke-names."

England's 800 Silent Sentinels.

Around the British isles there are now more than eight hundred light-houses, silent sentinels of the sea, keeping watch and guard over ships that pass in the night. In the beginning of last century, or rather a hundred years ago, there were only twenty-five, and the illumination was inferior. Now some of these have a brilliancy equal to thirty million candle power, visible for a hundred miles under the proper conditions.

The Flag in History.

It can hardly be doubted that flags, or their equivalent, were used very early in the world's history. Among the buried remnants of early races and civilization are found records of objects which were apparently used as ensigns. These are accepted as evidence that the ancient Egyptian soldiers were not without their standards. The Assyrians and Jews also carried something similar in design and purpose.

Improvement in Circular Saw.

Every other tooth in a new circular saw for cutting tool steel is a trifle longer than its neighbor, the long teeth making the center of the cut and the short ones, which are thicker, gouging out the sides.

Error in Conditions Somewhere.

There is something wrong if a man is expected to meditate on eternity when he has no assurance of being able to meet his butcher's bill.

What Chalk Is.

The chalk which we use on blackboards and the chalk cliffs along England's coast are the pressed together remains of tiny bodies that once lived in the sea.

Inn of the Mild Henry.

The inn "of the mild Henry (zum sanften Heinrich) in a little town of Posen has evidently changed hands during its career, for there is at least an intimation, in an advertisement recently inserted in a Posen newspaper by Hermann Dunkelberg, the present owner, that he may not be especially mild. The advertisement reads: "It has come to my notice that I am accused of having de-nounced colleagues because they suffered 'Tannebaum' (a forbidden game) to be played in their places. As I have no desire to waste my time in court, I hereby promise three marks to anybody who believed this report out of lack of brains, five marks to anybody who spread it be-cause of malice and ten marks to the originator of it, which he can get on personal application to me. Will pay fair price for a good, usable bullwhip. Herman Dunkelberg, Inn of the Mild Henry."

SOX FINISH THEIR TRAINING JAUNT

Start Ante-season Exhibition Games Today; Evers Making Good in Game with Colonels

FORT WORTH, Texas, April 1.—
With the 1912 training camp behind them forever, the White Sox are here today scheduled to play the first exhibition game on the homeward trip. Ed Walsh, the premier sprinter, showed himself in excellent form when he went nine innings against Waco yesterday and allowed but three hits. The Sox won 2 to 1.
The Sox seconds are at Fort Smith waiting for the weather to clear for a game Tuesday.

Cubs Going Good
LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 1.—
Manager Chance of the Cubs declared today that with any kind of luck in drawing good weather, the team will open the season at Cincinnati in the best form in years. Cheney and Northrup pitched good ball yesterday and the Colonels were beaten, 6 to 4. Evers starred with the willow and in the field.

Extra Inning Game
MOBILE, Ala., April 1.—That even the rescuers have become imbued with the old time Tiger spirit is shown by the result of the ten inning game with Mobile yesterday.
With the score 1 to 0 in favor of their opponents and two men out in the ninth, the Tigers tied the score and won out in the tenth.

Giants Must Work
ASHEVILLE, N. C., April 1.—After today the New York Giants will have no fun except what they get out of being driven hard by Manager Mc-Graw for a solid week. The Giants this afternoon will play a team from the Bingham military school. Mc-Graw promised the school players a battery and a shortstop.

Dodgers at Springfield
SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, April 1.—
Bill Dahlen's two squads of Brooklyn athletes arrived here today for three games.

Pirate Field Picked
HOT SPRINGS, Ark., April 1.—
Carey Wilson and Donlin as regular Pirate outfielders during 1912 and Tommy Leach assigned as adjutant coach, is the program of Manager Clarke as announced today.
Rain prevented any drill yesterday.

Regulars to be Saved
CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., April 1.—
Manager O'Day has decided to keep three of his regulars, Bescher, Mitchell and Egan out of exhibition games until the regular season opens.
He does not want them to take the risk of injuring themselves. The Reds will remain here until tomorrow night, playing Columbus, Ohio, Wednesday at Columbus.

MORRIS BACK ON ENGINE

FAPULPA, Okla., April 1.—Carl Morris, once touted as the white lion who was destined to wrest the world's championship from the negro race, was back at work today on his switch engine here. It is the same engine that Morris quit on the night of July 4, 1910, after Jeffries had been knocked out by Jack Johnson.

AMERICAN LOSES TWO

PARIS, April 1.—J. Poggenburg, American amateur billiard champion, today was three games won and six lost to his credit in the international tournament. He dropped two games yesterday to Mortier, the Frenchman, 400 to 135 and 112 respectively. Mortier ran 178, the highest run of the tournament.

OXFORD WINS IN SECOND CONTEST

Annual Boat Race Is Held
Again and Oxford Beats
the Challengers Six
Lengths

LONDON, April 1.—Oxford won the annual race with Cambridge on the Thames here today, scoring an easy victory. The race was rowed over as the result of Saturday's fierce. The official time for the four and one-quarter miles was 22 minutes, three seconds.

The winners finished first by six
lengths.
Instead of the fast stroke of Saturday, Cambridge began with an average of thirty strokes to the minute. Oxford rowed a steady thirty-two to the minute which was maintained as though the crew was simply on a practice row, their shell slipping through the water quietly and swiftly.

For the first half mile the crews held together with the thin blade of the Oxford shell about three feet in front of their rivals. Then their stroke cut loose and called for "more steam." The effect was instantaneous and slowly but surely the Oxford shell forged to the front. In a frantic effort to stave off defeat as long as possible Cambridge ran her stroke up to 38 and held it there but the power was in the other craft and for all practical purposes the race was already over.

In the last mile and a quarter Oxford simply rowed away from Cambridge and won as she pleased by six open lengths.

TWO BADGERS ON ALL WESTERN TEAM

Two Wisconsin men, a like number of the Purdue squad, and one Minnesota player were picked by Chris Steinmetz of the University of Wisconsin for places on the all-western collegiate basketball team. In addition the Badgers have the honor of having Scoville named captain. Two Badgers were also given places on the second all-western five.

Steinmetz picked the all-western teams as follows:
First team—Right forward, Lawler, Minnesota; left forward, Stangel, Wisconsin; center, McVaugh, Purdue; right guard, Scoville, captain, Wisconsin; left guard, Stockton, Purdue.

Second team—Right forward, Barr,
Purdue; left forward, Goldstein, Chicago; center, Graves, captain, Indiana; right guard, Sawyer, Minnesota; left guard, Norgren, Chicago.

Third team—Right forward, Barr,
Purdue; left forward, Goldstein, Chicago; center, Graves, captain, Indi-

ting heavyweights, will meet here tonight in a ten round bout.

Continent That Was Lost.

One of the wonders of the world that men hear little about is the Lost Continent. Sea-going men are familiar with the chain of little islands that extend from the continent of Asia down to Australia. Should the ocean go down five hundred feet this Lost Continent would be restored. It is believed that a few aeons ago the Lost Continent really existed.

COUNTY EMPLOYEES STRIKE

CHICAGO, April 1.—Every union man employed by Cook county was ordered to go on strike this morning according to Edward Nockles, secretary of the Chicago Federation of Labor. The walkout order is the result of the dropping of 20 mechanics from the county payroll, because no provision for their pay had been made in the appropriation.

OPERATION KILLS
SENATOR TAYLOR

Tennesseean Victim of the Final Operation to Save
Life; Died Yesterday Morning

WASHINGTON, April 1.—United States Senator Robert Love Taylor of Tennessee died at Providence hospital at 9:40 o'clock Sunday morning. Senator Taylor had been failing in health for several months and last Thursday morning was operated on in a final effort to save his life.

Although he withstood the immediate shock of the operation, he began losing strength and lapsed into unconsciousness at 3 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Taylor was present at the end, as was Mrs. Taylor's brother, Charles St. John, Mrs. S. B. Williamson and Dr. Harrison Crook, Senator Taylor's physician. Mrs. Taylor is suffering from the shock and today is under medical care at the hospital.

Beware of Cousins.

Cousins are not as simple as they seem. The very fact of being a cousin, is complicated. The laissezfaire of cousinship is both eluding and deluding—cousins will be cousins, even if you did not choose them.
They can borrow money from you, visit you without being asked,
tell people they belong to your family, contest your will, even fall in love with you—and a cousin once removed is twice as apt to. Never completely trust a cousin—never depend on his not doing any of these things. Never take him for granted. The "cousin-ly kiss" may or may not mean what it means. And cousins always do kiss
—it's part of being cousins.—Atlantic.

APPLETON, Wis., April 1.—Madison won the Wisconsin state interscholastic basketball championship here Saturday night by decisively beating Superior, 34 to 19. The showing made by the champions was fully up to expectations, whereas Superior proved a big disappointment.
The championship game closed the eighth annual tournament held under the auspices of Lawrence college.
The first half ended 15 to 8 in favor of Madison, and it was apparent that Madison was the better of the two teams. Levis Davy and Kessenich starred for the champions, with Hoffman playing a great guarding game.
The redeeming feature of Superior's playing was Holman's free throwing.
President Plantz of Lawrence college presented the Madison team with a handsome leather pennant in blue and white, the Lawrence colors, for winning the championship and gave the individual members of the team solid gold basketball watch charms, while the members of the Superior team were presented with silver watch charms for taking second place and the members of the Oshkosh team were given bronze charms for third place.

Oshkosh won third place by defeating Menomonie by a score of 34 to and Walter for the losers. The game was marked by loose playing on the part of both teams, although Oshkosh displayed occasional flashes of clever team work. Madison's overwhelming defeat of Superior was considerable of a surprise as the latter were ruling favorites.

Ants Eat Through Lead Cables.

White ants are causing much trouble in South Australia in telephone cables and also in the underground electric light lines. On the lead sheathed telephone cables crosses between the circuits began to occur.
Upon withdrawing some of this cable from the ducts it was found that the ants had eaten through the lead in many places. On the Sidney system of electric lighting the ants ate through the bitumen compound and then through the lead and high tension insulation next to the wire. To stop the ravages which will incur an enormous expense if not checked, arsenious oxide mixed with bitumen,
a sort of pitch, is being applied to the cables. Carbon bisulphide is also being tried with the idea that the odor will drive the ants away.

Iceland Education.

Icelanders are now famous for their high standard of education. Every child of ten in this remote little land can read and write, neither abject poverty nor excessive wealth is seen, and crime is rare; and the latest step in the evolution of this remarkable people is the founding of a university at the capital.

Competition.

She (to young poet)—How much do you get for your poems, Charley?
Charley (with pride)—From $2 to $5.
She—Well, isn't that very little,
Charley? I see that Sir Walter Scott got $10,000 for one of his.
Charley—Yes, but you see, writing poetry isn't the business it used to be.
There's too much competition.

FAN-ATICAL
FANCIES

The way that Lawrence college dictates to the state high schools in the matter of basketball seems arbitrary to say the least. One instance of their inconsistency in attempting to rule the state can be found right in La Crosse. After ordering the highs to play the Viola quintet, which they did, the locals sent in their record up to date as is required of all schools. Then a sarcastic reply to the effect that La Crosse had no claim to a place in the tournament was received from one Paul F. Hunter, a hitherto unheard of power at Appleton, who suggested that the locals play a number of teams whom the highs had never before met. If his advice had been followed the locals would probably have been playing elimination games
yet. Seems like a queer way to conduct a championship basketball meet, doesn't it?

For the first time in the history of baseball at the university of Wisconsin, the Badger nine will take a southern trip this spring when many of the strong teams of that section of the country will be met. The baseball players leave Madison for their training trip tomorrow and they will play their first game Saturday when they line up against the Missouri nine at Columbia. The trip will last for about ten days.

Eddie Klein, who has been the star outfielder of the Outcasts for some time, leaves April 8 to join the Oshkosh club of the W. I. league which team purchased his release some time ago. Oshkosh will train at Sterling, Ill., which is Manager Joe Killian's home.

JOHNSON PLANS TO

CHICAGO, April 1.—Resting up for a week from his theatrical life, Jack Johnson today announced that he will soon embark on a campaign of short battles "to clean up the white hope division" before his championship fight with Flynn on July 4. The big black said he expects a visit from Tom O'Rourke of New York within the next few days when arrangements for a ten round fight with Al Paizer to be staged in New York will be made. Negotiations are also pending for Johnson to make a $10,000 appearance in Philadelphia against Joe Jeanette.
